Molotov Out As Russians' Foreign Boss

Dmitri T. Shepilov Named Successor in High-Level Shakeup

MOSCOW— (AP)—The Soviet Union had a new foreign minister today with 50-year-old Dmitri T Shepilov taking over from old Bolshevik Vyacheslav M Molotov

The Soviet Union announced the high-level shake up Friday night on the eve of Yugoslav President Tito s arrival in this Communist capital for a state visit

Editor of Pravda

Shepilov has been editor-in-chief of the Communist party newspaper Pravda since December, 1952

The timing of the switch caught Western diplomats by surprise and provoked immediate speculation that Stalin s successors were tossing another olive branch at Tito The Yugoslav president once was the target of denunciation by Molotov

A Belgrade dispatch said the move created a sensation in Yugoslavia It was regarded there as a Kremlin double-play to please Tito and bounce the closest associate of Stalin remaining in the Soviet hierarchy

Announced as Resignation

Molotov's departure from the foreign ministry post was announced in the form of a resignation. The Supreme Soviet Presidium gave a quick "yes '

The announcement said simply, without explanation

"The Presidium of the Supreme Soviet has accepted the request of the first deputy chairman of the council of ministers, Vyacheslav M Molotov, that he be relieved of his duties as foreign minister Dmitri T Shepilov has been appointed minister of foreign affairs "

"They are getting rid of the oldsters one by one," a middle-aged woman commented on Moscow s main street

Expected by Norwegian

"It has been expected for a long time," said Ambassador Erik Braadland of Norway

Communist party chief Nikita Khrushchev said the Soviet Union was "sincerely sorry" for the 1948 expulsion of Yugoslavia from the cominform, the international organization of Communist nations recently dissolved

Molotov and Stalin signed the 1948 letter expelling Tito for following a policy independent of Moscow communism

Despite the timing of Moltov's departure from the foreign ministry, there was no indication the old Bolshevik was in disgrace The announcement indicated Molotov retained his post as deputy chairman, equivalent to vice premier And there were reports that he might take over from Marshal

Fair, Warmer Weather Seen For Weekend

High of 75 Predicted Sunday After Friday's Low of 45 Degrees

Temperatures in the low 60's ushered in June here but the Ohio weatherman promised some summer weather Sunday

Fair and warmer weather with a high of 75, is forecast for central Ohio tomorrow

Marion shivered through a high reading of 64 and overnight low of 45 Friday and this morning Similar temperatures a high of 62 and low of 43, are forecast for today

At 7 30 a m today, the mercury had risen to 47 and at 11 a m it stood at only 48

Marionites and Ohioans can expect normal temperatures during June according to the Weather Bureau in Washington

A 30-day outlook for June issued by the bureau Friday called for temperatures averaging near normal It also predicted subnormal precipitation in the eastern half of the country except above normal in Florida and New England

The bureau said temperatures would average above seasonal normals from the Rocky Mountain states eastward to the Mississippi and that below normal temperatures were expected east of the Appalachian and in the vicinity of the Sierra Nevada Mountains Generally near normal amounts of rain were predicted in the western half of the nation by the bureau

Okay Is Given To Drafting of New Tax Bills

Ohio Lawmakers Will Work Out Program For Special Session

COLUMBUS Ohio (AP)—The Ohio Legislative Service Commission has approved the drafting of special session bills to recoup tax refunds and prevent future tax losses of nearly two million dollars annually

The bills are designed to prevent local government loss of tax revenues knocked out by the courts

Will Lose Million

U S and Ohio Supreme Courts recently held that federal securities owned by banks and financial institutions were exempt from state taxation Officials said the decisions would cost Ohio about 11 million dollars in lost and rebated taxes dating back to 1947

A special session of the legislature for June 28 has been called by Gov Frank Lausche to deal with the problem Lausche said the call would be expanded to permit changes in other laws so water could be sold to a 90-million-dollar General Motors plant proposed for the Youngstown Warren area

Senate Majority Leader C Stanley Mechem (R-Athens) Friday asked the commission to approve the drafting of the bills His resolution received commission approval

Commission Chairman Roger Cloud Ohio House speaker, said the bills would propose a general fund appropriation of $3 700,000 and tax changes to recover the losses

Turned Over to Cities

The state collects the taxes and turns them over to the counties, cities, villages and townships for operating purposes

Cloud said court objections could be met by drafting laws to place the tax on the owners of shares and capital used by financial institutions The courts indicated that Ohio laws were not specific on that point Cloud said

The commission's counsel reported that state tax officials planned to offer separate bills to make up the tax losses by increasing the levy on deposits of banks and financial institutions That tax is separate from the levy knocked out by the courts, counsel said.

Bus Schedule Changed for 2 City Routes

A schedule change and reduction of service on two Marion Bus Lines routes were announced today by Walter Christian, owner and operator

Beginning Monday morning buses on the south loop and Silver St routes will operate on one-hour service, he said Presently the buses are operating on one-half hour service he explained

Under the new schedules the Silver St buses will leave the Courthouse stop at 6 15 a m and operate each hour until 6 15 p m They will leave Evans and Lee Sts on about the half-hour for the return trip to town, Mr. Christian said

On the south loop the buses will leave the courthouse stop at 6 45 a m, operating each hour until 5 45 p m The south loop buses will leave General Hospital for the trip towards town on about the hour, Mr Christian said

One reason for the curtailment of service is a number of broken springs on the Silver St and south loop buses, he said In the last 10 days it has been necessary to put on 14 new springs "mostly on the Silver and south loop buses, ' he said

He added that it is his hope to repaint some of the buses and make a number of other repairs to them this summer if the curtailed service helps cut down the number of spring repairs necessary

City's Schools To Hold Closing Session Tuesday

All Marion City schools will close their doors Tuesday for the summer vacation Pupils will report at 12 45 p m Tuesday to receive final grade cards

Class periods were officially ended Friday throughout the city The vacation period will end Sept 5, the first Wednesday after Labor Day, when classes will resume for the 1956-57 school year

Tito Forecasts Peace Among Red Countries

MOSCOW (AP)—President Tito of Yugoslavia said today he is sure there will never again be a split among Communist countries such as occurred when he broke with the Kremlin in 1948

"The spirit of Lenin's principles of collective leadership are such that I am sure there will never again be misunderstandings among the nations of the socialist camp," he declared in a speech broadcast from Kievsky Station

Tito had just arrived in Moscow to patch up whatever differences remained between him and the

Molotov Ouster Viewed As Bid To Appease Tito

WASHINGTON (AP)—The replacement of Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov was regarded in Washington today as a well-timed move by the Khrushshev Bulganin regime to strengthen its ties with Marshal Tito of Yugoslavia

Molotovs 'resignation" announced in Moscow Friday, on the eve of Tito s arrival there had long been expected in Washington and in other Western capitals

The appointment of Dmitri Shepilov as his successor also came as no surprise Shepilov editor since 1952 of Pravda, the Communist party newspaper, had been a major subject of speculation for the job

U S officials said there was no reason to think that the change would alter American relations with the Soviet Union

Nor did they expect to make any difference at all in the major lines of Soviet foreign policy developed by Communist party boss Nikita Khrushchev and Premier Nikolai Bulganin

Some authorities said privately that the switch from Molotov to the younger Shepilov could mean a more vigorous conduct of Soviet diplomacy They said it could bring intensified efforts in the fields of international conferences, official visits between Russia and other countries and stepped-up activity in the Middle East and South Asia

But the most immediate significance of the changeover was seen in Washington as involving further Russian efforts to repair the damage done by the Stalinist regime to Soviet-Yugoslav relations in 1948

Stalinist pressures on Tito to knuckle under to Moscow at that

First Citizen of Houston

Millionaire Jesse Jones, Former RFC Head, Dies

HOUSTON (AP)—Jesse H Jones 82, a Tennessee farm boy who built one of the nation s largest fortunes despite only a fifth grade education, is dead

The wartime secretary of Commerce and head of the Reconstruction Finance Corp , died Friday night

His financial abilities had impressed three presidents under whom he had served, Woodrow Wilson, Herbert Hoover and Franklin D Roosevelt.

RFC Head 13 Years

As head of the RFC 13 years Jones loaned over 50 billion dollars As the No 1 citizen of Houston he built the skyline of the South s largest city, owning 35 buildings ranging up to 37 stories in heighth He was publisher of the Houston Chronicle and owned three of the city's largest hotels

In Washington, Secretary of Commerce Weeks said Jones was an outstanding example of a business statesman

Sen Lyndon Johnson (D-Tex) said Jones caught the early vision of Texas and that "he was part of it and of us " Former Texas Gov W P, Hobby, chairman of the board of the Houston Post, said Jones was 'the No 1 citizen of Houston and one of the greatest of Americans '

Jones had extensive property holdings in New York City, Fort Worth, Dallas and Memphis, Tenn. His Houston Endowment Corp , has given millions to educational, medical and charitable institutions

He brought the 1928 National convention to Houston by signing a blank check after San Francisco had bid $200,000

Critically Ill 10 Days

Jones underwent an operation March 28 for a kidney blockage He re-entered the hospital May 9 and had been critically ill about 10 days

The widow, Mrs Mary Gibbs Jones, had left the hospital shortly before death going to her hotel apartment a bit earlier than usual because of a throat infection

At the bedside were a nephew John T Jones Jr , president of the Houston Chronicle and a (step) granddaughter, Mrs. John A Beck

Funeral arrangements are pending

Born in Robertson County, Tennessee, April 5, 1874, Jones' parents died when he was young and he came to Texas in his late teens

Jones resigned as secretary of Commerce and as head of the RFC in 1945 after a dispute with Henry A Wallace, vice president during Roosevelt's third term

In 1917, President Wilson drafted Jones to head the department of military relief of the American Red Cross President Hoover named him to the RFC board in 1932 and Roosevelt made him chairman of the Board in 1933 and appointed him secretary of Commerce in 1940

Choice for State School Head Narrowed to Five

The final list of candidates for state superintendent of public instruction has been trimmed from a field of 100 to five or six, it was announced Friday

Charlton Myers of Marion, chairman of the state board of education s candidate' screening committee, said a list of five or six names will be submitted to the 23 board members next week

He said candidates names will be announced Monday The board is expected to select a superintendant at its next meeting, June 11 The post pays $20,000 annually

Jet Bombers, Infantry Unit Join in Battle

Encounter Is Biggest Yet in 18-Month-Old Uprising; 290 Killed

ALGIERS, Algeria (AP) — Two French divisions backed by jet divebombers battled furiously today to wipe out a big Algerian rebel force trapped in the 'Gates of Iron" triangle of the desolate Biban Mountains

The French claimed the rebels already have lost 400 men—290 dead and 110 taken prisoner—in the biggest single encounter of the 18-month-old Algerian uprising

Get Infantry Support

Military dispatches disclosed that the 19th Infantry Division had been thrown in to support the crack 27th Mechanized Division and to contain rebel units desperately striving to break out of encirclement

Artillery and fighter-bomber planes blasted away at the rebels clinging to sun-baked crags within the triangle in eastern Algeria The area lies southwest of Bougie and along the Soumman Valley where French settlers repeatedly have been hit by strong rebel raids

The 7th Division launched its offensive Wednesday on the western edge of the triangle

French officers said the division was performing "superbly ' Originally it was trained on the NATO defense line in Germany to operate in small detachments under conditions of atomic warfare The officers said this type of training has been found excellent for the fast moving hit and run engagements of the Algerian war

The rebel triangle is besieged on the east by the 19th Infantry Division

The French are making an all out effort to dislodge the rebels from the mountain pass If they take the area, they will command the southern rim of the disputed Soumman Valley on the outskirts of the rebel-held Grand Kayblie

30 Rebels Killed

In the Constantine area, French forces moved against a rebel group near Mila and reported they killed 30

In Algiers, police raided the homes of known Communists and leaders of the National Algerian Movement They reportedly picked up 30 Reds and MNA leaders

The Arabs staged a general strike Friday in the Casbah—native quarter of Algiers—in protest against the French clampdown

In Paris, the Algerian situation held the stage in the French National Assembly s debate on Premier Guy Mollet's policies

A vote of confidence on the government s policies is slated for Tuesday

2 Hopefuls Near End Of Battle for Support In California Election

By The Associated Press

Sen Estes Kefauver and Adlai Stevenson plunged today into a last weekend of forced-draft campaigning before Tuesday s Democratic presidential primary in California

Kefauver continued to bang away at Stevenson, accusing him of double talk on the civil rights question

Stevenson—saying he is "not interested in dealing in personalities '—gave Kefauver only slight notice Instead, he reserved his heaviest blows for the Republican Eisenhower administration

With the California primary regarded as a possible make or break test both rival candidates for the Democratic presidential nomination went all out in hopes of pulling a big majority The winner will get California s 68-vote delegation after New York s the biggest at the party's national convention in August This also will be their last direct contest before that convention

President Eisenhower is unopposed on the Republican primary ballot in California The state will send 70 delegates to the GOP nominating convention, also in August

Friday, Vice President Nixon—virtually certain to be Eisenhower s running mate again —asked that Republican voters not write in his name on their ballots next Tuesday He telephoned V John Krehbiel, Los Angeles County GOP chairman, and cautioned that write-ins might invalidate ballots, under California law

Nine Russian Clergymen To Visit Mansfield

Group To Inspect 'Y' Facilities There; Also Will Stop at Wooster

TOLEDO Ohio (AP)—Nine Russian clergymen touring this country as guests of the National Council of Churches will arrive here by plane Wednesday afternoon

They will be guests at the council s general board meeting here Thursday morning they will motor to Mansfield where they will visit the new YMCA-YWCA building

From Mansfield the visitors will be taken to the College of Wooster where conferences have been arranged with the faculty of the college, a Presbyterian-supported school.

After leaving Wooster the clergymen will be taken to Seville Medina County where they will be briefed on Sunday schools There are no Sunday schools in Russia

The churchmen will be guests at supper Thursday evening in Seville homes as a climax of their two-day visit in Ohio

Their visit to America is a follow up to an 11-day visit to Russia last March by nine U S Protestant leaders.

Protestant Group Raps Soviet Visit

NEW YORK (AP)—More than 100 persons representing a Protestant religious group demonstrated at Idlewild Airport today in protest against a visit by eight Soviet churchmen

The Soviet clergymen were due to arrive this afternoon

The demonstration was arranged by the American Council of Christian Churches and led by Dr Harland J O'Dell, the council president The council is composed of relatively small, separatist churches

The protest group carried 31 picket signs, with messages such as "which of you are secret police?" and 'Soviet Russian churchmen are agents of the MVD (secret police)."

Relocation of Ohio Capitol Suggested

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Bartholomew & Associates a St Louis consultant engineering firm, has recommended that Ohio build another state office building and relocate the state capitol

The suggestions Friday were part of a report on public buildings and services made to the Franklin County Regional Planning Commission The report said officials should consider the 'eventual" relocation of the state capitol to the present site of Central High School here

A new 12-story state office building could be built on the west side of Front Street, between Rich and Main Streets here, the report said The commission took the proposals under consideration.

Played 'Dr. Christian'

Jean Hersholt, Veteran Film Actor, Dies at 70

The noted actor well known for his creation of the lovable Dr Christian character, was only recently tendered a huge civic testimonial by the motion picture industry

There he was lauded for his many years of philanthropy to the industry He was a founder of the Motion Picture Country Home and for many years headed the Motion Picture Relief Fund

Hersholt, knighted by the late King Christian X of Denmark in 1946, would have been 70 next July 12

Most of the big names in Hollywood had turned out last May 16 to pay honor to the onetime Danish immigrant whom many considered the industry's greatest humantarian They saw a man who who looked like death was near

Hersholt, who had three operations in the last year, had left a sickbed to attend the testimonial which honored his 50th year as an actor He had to leave before the tributes were finished But he was there long enough to hear himself praised by California Gov Goodwin J Knight, Mary Pickford, actor Charles Coburn and via telegrams, President Eisenhower and Vice President Nixon

Hersholt called it 'the most memorable evening of my whole life "

His most recent illness stemmed from after-effects of an operation three months ago when he had his prostate gland removed It was his third operation within a year The others were for the removal of the appendix and a minor back operation

A Little Religion

A Sermonette

By REV. JOHN C SEARLE JR
Pastor of First Evangelical United Brethren Church

Acts 26 28. "Then Agrippa said to Paul, Almost you persuade me to be a Christian"

What does a person do who wants to keep from getting Small Pox? He goes to a doctor to receive a small dose of the disease in the form of a vaccination What does a person do to keep from getting a vital, workable, Christian character? He gets a small dose of religion which seems to make him immune to anything more or better as far as religion is concerned

There is a curious story of a man satisfied with a little religion recorded in the Book of Acts Paul the Apostle was arrested for inciting a riot and was charged with teaching the overthrow of the Roman government After several hearings Paul appealed his case directly to Caesar, the emperor of the Roman empire During his imprisonment Paul was taken north of Palestine to appear before the king of that part of the country, King Agrippa We don't know much about him except he seemed to have been well informed concerning Jewish laws and customs Paul was given the opporunity to speak in his own defense The entire 26th chapter of Acts is the account of that defense

AT THE CLOSE of Paul's speech Agrippa looks down at him from his seat of judgment and says thus, 'Paul, almost you persuade me to be a Christian" In modern terminology that would sound like this, "I don't mind listening to your sermons, I rather enjoy our Sunday School class, the music is very fine in our church, I like to have my better self appealed to once in awhile Almost you persuade me to be serious about my religion" Why are people content with a little religion?

First, it doesn't cost very much Have you ever noticed how people get themselves wet for the first time when they go to a swimming pool? Some people go to the deep end and jump in all at once They get it over with in a hurry They completely surrender themselves to the water While other people begin with their big toe and then prolong the agony as long as they can before getting all wet Then there are those who go "swimming" and never get beyond the big toe stage They sit on the bank or beach sunning themselves, being careful not to get wet except for the few drops that are splashed on them when someone dives near by After an hour or two at the pool they come out through the bath house to announce to one and all, 'I've been in swimming!" Horsefeathers! Yet that is the way some people act when infected with a case of "small religiontus" They get just close enough to the real thing to get "splashed' once in awhile but never learn the meaning of complete surrender to Christ and His Church All too often when a person like that passes on the obituary column states solemnly that so-and-so "was a life long member of such and-such a church" It's like spending all summer at the beach and not once getting wet

THE SECOND REASON people are content with a little religion is that it is now fashionable to at least belong to church It is good business to have a church connection It is almost as if we 'use" our connection with Almighty God to further our own ends with little or no regard for what we will do for Him in return Someone once said "A little knowledge is a dangerous thing" It is also true that a little religion is a dangerous thing Several years ago on the campus of Northwestern University, a freshman girl didn't want to be vaccinated She had complied with all the other entrance examinations but she insisted in forgoing the vaccination But much against her will the doctor vaccinated her anyway But as soon as the girl had left that room she took her handkerchief and wiped off the vaccine from her arm She forgot about it for a time but ONLY for a time! A small abrasion appeared under her nose causing her to use her handkerchief in an effort to sooth the soreness Some of the vaccine on the hankie got into the abrasion and she was vaccinated right under her nose! If only those who delight in a little religion would be so easily identified from the rest of the church people our job would be greatly simplified The crying need of our day is for the church to be alive and working There is no place for those who sit on the bank and sun themselves when they should be in the water over their heads The days of kidding ourselves are over Either we wake up to the fact that there is work to be done or we may wake up some morning to find we are forbidden to even sit on the bank of the pool

The curse of a little religion will have to be removed from the church beginning with you and with me And if we are ever going to accomplish the job God has given us to do we will have to begin right now!

Confident Living

By NORMAN VINCENT PEALE

How To Handle a Handicap

I receive a great many letters a day and they contain all manner of fascinating human stories. Just recently, however, there came in the mail one of the most interesting I ever had.

Dr. Peale

"My letter will be a bit different from the ones you usually receive," it read. "I have everything to make life wonderful, good, and beautiful. God and I are very personal friends. I can do all the things I love to do for others because of His blessed help. I have a fine, kind husband, a very beautiful daughter, and I also enjoy a host of wonderful friends. I sing, play the piano, and give talks of a devotional nature. I pray that I am a blessing to those who need a blessing. What more could anyone ask of life than this?

"Incidentally, I am without sight. . . ."

A VERY DIFFERENT letter indeed! "Incidentally I am without sight"! Here is a woman who certainly knows how to handle a handicap. She seems actually to disregard it. She hasn't her thoughts fixed on the fact that she is blind. She does not concentrate on her difficulties nor complain about them. She does not dwell on the hazards of life, but rather upon the positive values. She fixes her thoughts on God and the welfare of others, overcomes her handicap, and so lives joyously.

Fortunately, very few of us are born sightless or become blind. But all of us do grow older—and age seems a big handicap to many. Here is another letter from the pile on my desk, a letter showing how one man handles the age and retirement problem, which becomes such a difficult experience for some.

"I reached the retirement age of 65, and against my wishes, was compelled to retire by the bank I had been with for 24 years. I won't go into detail as to how I felt. This happened on a dismal and rainy night—I was walking through Rector Street, and I never felt more depressed or useless in all my life.

"SUDDENLY, IT happened! I had not prayed, but felt I was not alone. A voice within me said over and over again, 'God is good; God is good.' I immediately felt uplifted. Every drop of rain broke the puddles into tinseled lights. It was beautiful! I went home, greatly comforted, and have had the feeling ever since that I am looked after.

"About two weeks later I had a call from another bank asking me to organize a credit department for them. . . . It, too, has the 65 year limit, but they have made an exception of me. . . .

"I am now 69, and in good health. I am young, I know, because I feel the best is still ahead. . . . The good Lord is giving me the opportunity, the strength, and the courage to keep on."

Here is expressed that same dauntless, positive spirit. "I am young . . . because I feel the best is still ahead"! This man is not handicapped by his 69 years. He has fixed his mind on the Source of eternal youth.

WHEN A PERSON really develops the ability to put his faith in God into actual practice, he can face any handicap at any time of his life and overcome it. I get letter after letter giving specific examples like these and therefore I am sure that such victorious living is possible, not only because I happen to believe in it, but because I can document it with innumerable cause histories. I would like to hear from you about your victories over your handicaps.

The power to overcome handicaps is God-power. It lies dormant within each of us until we call upon it, and each time we use this force it grows in strength. The Bible explains this inner power by the statement, "The Kingdom of God is within you." What is this "Kingdom of God"? It is the total of His riches, His power, His greatness, His goodness, His invincibility. All of these are the invaluable assets available to us in meeting life's difficulties. So why should we ever feel defeated? That spiritual power is in you, and by wise and proper use of it, you can overcome any handicap.

Prayer

SCIENCE AND HEALTH
with Key to the Scriptures
by MARY BAKER EDDY

Most people would pray more if they felt they knew how, — and knew how prayer could really be effective. Many today feel that their own lives, and the world at large, sorely need help that human effort has not brought.

They see that somehow the answer to life's perplexing problems must be sought where power and intelligence have their limitless source — in the realm of God.

Today Science and Health is revealing a wholly new understanding of prayer, and meeting humanity's need.

5 Counties Form Ohio Valley Civil Defense Authority

CINCINNATI (AP) — Five southwestern Ohio counties joined Friday in the start of an Ohio Valley Civil Defense Authority.

Jack Gault, executive director of the authority, said another Ohio county is expected to join the organization and there are plans to bring in six counties in southeastern Indiana and four in northern Kentucky.

Representatives of Hamilton, Clermont, Butler, Clinton and Warren counties signed the agreement Friday to participate in the authority. Brown County also is expected to join.

Gault explained the authority is being formed in connection with a federal government civil defense program to provide for the evacuation of the nation's key defense targets in the event of an attack.

He said Hamilton County is a key target in the Ohio Valley.

"If we have to evacuate a million people from Hamilton County," he said, "They must be funnelled into the surrounding 15 counties in the tri-state area. That would be impossible without a three-state organization."

Installation Services Slated at Local Church

Special installation services for Rev. and Mrs. Kenneth Shook will be held at the First Church of God, corner of Woodrow and Highland Aves., Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Special singing by the Bellefontaine congregation will be featured and Rev. Carl Reynolds of Springfield will give the installation message, with Rev. A. P. Cain of Springfield assisting.

Both Rev. and Mrs. Shook are natives of Springfield and they attended Wittenberg College in Springfield.

He is an artist and uses a chalk board in his work. Mrs. Shook majored in music and is a music teacher. They have three children, Brenda, Bobby and Garry.

Rev. and Mrs. Shook were at Greenfield for three and a half years before coming to Marion.

Lawyers Lead Drive For New Dayton Court

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—The Dayton Bar Assn. will present a plan to county commissioners within two weeks that may provide a $1,600,000 juvenile court and detention home for Dayton and Montgomery County. The plan calls for private funds to be used.

Failure of bond issue proposals the last 10 years has prevented construction of the juvenile center.

Under the plan, a bar association spokesman said, land would be leased from the county and the building would be built by a nonprofit corporation under bar association guidance. Tax free bonds would be used to finance the project, he said.

County Youth Elected State Officer of FFA

Fred Isler of Prospect Friday night was elected secretary of the Ohio chapter of the Fuutre Farmers of America.

New president of the farm youth group is John Poppe of New Bremen.

More than 700 delegates elected Poppe last night to succeed Larry Earhart of Troy.

Other officers elected include:

Jerry Laffen, Celina, vice president; Don Thomas, Ostrander, treasurer; Russell Johnson, Mowreystown, reporter, and Jim Finley, McConnelsville, sentinel.

District vice presidents named were Stanley Augustus of Springfield, central district; Robert Tadsen, Holgate, northwest; James Sims, New Concord, northeast, and James Carr, West Chester, southern.

Judging teams Friday competed at Ohio State University in a variety of events, but results won't be known until later today.

Bucyrus Bible School Will Begin on Monday

BUCYRUS — Annual Vacation Bible School, sponsored by the Bucyrus Ministerial Association, will open in several churches Monday and continue through June 22.

The school will be under the direction of Dr. E. G. Corwin, pastor of Whetstone Evangelical and Reformed Church and religious education teacher in the public schools here.

Classes for 4 to 6-year-olds will be held in St. James Episcopal and St. John's Evangelical and Reformed Churches; primary classes for children in grades one through three, will be held in First Presbyterian and First Methodist Churches; grades four through six will go to Good Hope Lutheran or St. Paul's Lutheran Churches.

Sessions will be from 9 to 11 a.m., Monday through Friday.

2,000 Doctors Expected To Join Military Ranks

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Defense Department expects about 2,000 young doctors to volunteer for military service between now and September.

That number would fill almost half the Pentagon's expressed need for 4,600 medical officers in the year starting July 1.

A Pentagon spokesman said some 2,000, just completing their internships, have signified they intend to complete now their two-year service obligation under the military draft law. He added a majority have indicated they will sign up before September.

Commissioners Cheer; Pigeons Are Chased

BUCYRUS — Those pesky pigeons, which have been a constant irritant to Crawford County Commissioners by choosing the courthouse and jailroofs for roosting places, were missing here today, but the extermination job cost the county $150.

Robert L. Martin of Bucyrus recently was hired by the commissioners to "do away with the pigeons." He destroyed more than 250 pigeons and their nests and also cleaned the courthouse roof and the clogged downspouts.

Commissioners said today they considered the $150 well spent as the birds have been causing considerable damage to the exterior of the courthouse

Marshall Will Ask Recount

Wants Votes Checked In 500 Ohio Precincts

CLEVELAND (AP) — Harry T. Marshall, Cleveland city councilman who lost the Republican nomination for attorney general by less than 4,000 votes, says he will ask for recounts in about 500 precincts in seven counties.

Marshall, defeated by William Saxbe of Mechanicsburg, said Friday he thinks there were "honest mistakes" in tallying votes in Summit, Montgomery, Clark, Butler, Scioto, Mahoning and Lorain counties.

Official figures released this week gave Saxbe 160,328 votes to 156,952 for Marshall.

Marshall asked for a recount Friday in 110 precincts in Summit County, and plans to seek recount of between 50 and 80 precincts each in the other counties.

He must post $10 for each precinct in which he seeks a recount. If the recount shifts the vote 4 per cent or more in his favor, or changes the result, he gets the money back.

Man Not Loitering— He Just Couldn't Move

HAMILTON, Ohio. (AP) —Police arrested Tom Smith, 55, of nearby Oxford, Friday on a charge of loitering but when they got him to jail they wondered if he just hadn't been weighted down.

A search of his pockets produced nails, staples, screws, spring, iron washers, clothes line hooks, rope, adhesive tape, wrenches, hinges, a watch, cotter pins, a nail clip, a part of a spectacle frame, pencils, marbles, a comb, cigars, chewing tobacco and other items.

Police weighed the collection just for curiosity and the weight was 7½ pounds.

SHOE SERVICE

NEW YORK (INS)—Male guests at a New York hotel are taking advantage of a unique service inaugurated by a bell-hop. Bill Picaro of the Hotel Edison reports that at least a dozen men a week let him break their shoes in for them.

$13,023 Paid Out By Court in May

A total of some $13,023 was paid out to city, state and country treasurers from the Marion Municipal Court during May, Mrs. Clara Fleck, clerk, reported today.

Largest single payment was to the city treasurer. It was $4,433.75 paid from fines, costs, bond forfeitures and other income of the criminal division of the court.

The city treasurer was also paid $184.51 from various costs collected in the civil division making a total of $4,623.26 paid to the city during the month.

The county treasurer was paid $971, the state treasurer $877.50, the state division of wildlife $35 and the Marion County sheriff, $53.20.

Congratulations to all young people who are graduating this year! Receiving a diploma means you have fulfilled the academic requirements and met the standards of conduct of your schools. They, in turn, have given you a secure world for four years, with work and rules of conduct mapped out for you.

Now all this is changed in a day. The anchor has suddenly pulled up, and the world ahead looks insecure and uncertain. You now have to plan your own work, and set your own standards of behavior.

At this point, a church connection is a strong anchor to spiritual security. Let your Commencement mean a commencement of regular church attendance in the church you choose. Face the new world ahead armed with its firm hope and faith.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are (1) For his own sake (2) For his children's sake (3) For the sake of his community and nation (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Is Communism Contagious?

Sometimes when trying to follow the reasoning of patriotic Americans who believe Communism is contagious, it is tempting to wonder how their forefathers survived the ideological struggle in the human family.

Benjamin Franklin's contemporaries often voiced the suspicion that he was seeing more of the court life of the British and French monarchies than was safe for an American diplomat. But Franklin never was in any danger, because he had the strength of his convictions about the new republic he had helped to found.

George Washington was criticized in his day by those who doubted his ability to withstand what they believed to be the contagion of his English background, and so was Alexander Hamilton. But both men were impervious to the danger of reverting to European type, as millions of Americans have proved to be since Revolutionary days. They knew what they believed. They could not be swayed.

Dwight D. Eisenhower, who had intimate contact with Marshal Zhukov of the Soviet Union after World War II, sees no harm in letting Gen. Twining, head of the U.S. Air Force, go to Moscow this summer. It is safe to assume that Gen. Douglas MacArthur, who has a broadly cosmopolitan background, would see no danger in letting any high-ranking military leader go anywhere at any time.

The only immunity against ideas is the positive strength of other ideas. Americans have the kind of strength that comes from thier convictions about the dignity of man and man's inalienable right to be free from political tyranny.

Communism makes converts only in places where there are no convictions to oppose it. Representative democracy, on the other hand, makes converts wherever human experience has revealed the gross injustice of despotism. Americans are the revolutionists of the modern world not the Communists.

Eisenhower to Twining

The question of whether or not exchanges of military visitors between the United States and the Soviet Union are good international psychology has been raised by many thoughtful persons.

They contend that whatever Gen. Nathan F. Twining may learn in Russia as chief of the U.S. Air Force on his visit this summer cannot offset the damage he will do to people under Soviet domination who are hoping for liberation.

They believe that everything the United States does which strengthens the prestige of the Communist dictatorship in Russia dims the hopes of those who think of the United States as the champion of their ultimate release from dictatorship.

This is a difficult matter to decide, although it has been decided by the Eisenhower administration that more, not fewer, contacts with the Soviet Union are desirable. The meeting at Geneva last summer marked the beginning of a more outgoing attitude in diplomacy. The Twining visit this summer, which may prove to be the trail blazer for other military visits back and forth, will further advance President Eisenhower's theory that the relationship between himself and Marshal Zhukov during and after World War II did much good and no harm.

Now that U.S. tourists are going to Russia and Russian tourists are coming here, there is no way to turn back the clock to the time when the United States had not even given the Soviet Union diplomatic recognition. The damage was done 22 years ago, when Maxim Litvinov persuaded Franklin D. Roosevelt that the United States could not put his government out of existence by refusing to recognize it.

Special Session Imperative

Gov. Lausche's call for a special session of the General Assembly in late June puts him on the right side of the touchy issue of whether or not the needs of local government should have first call on the Ohio legislature's time.

Certainly it is no fault of local government that court decisions took away the revenue cities have been drawing from a tax on government securities held by banks. It is not their fault that an obsolete state law controlling the sale of water beyond municipal limits threatened to foul up the General Motors project in the Youngstown area. The special session will deal with boty these problems.

If the General Assembly met every year, as it should, to carry on its legislative duties continuously, instead of by fits and starts every two years, the governor of Ohio would not bear responsibility for calling it into special sessions.

Until that defect has been corrected, the governor has no choice but to put the legislature on the job whenever its services are needed. They are needed in 1956 to restore revenue which cities cannot spare and to remove the hobbles from Youngstown to its desire to cooperate with General Motors in an industrial expansion of importance to teh whole state of Ohio.

Religion In and On the Job

A Pilot Light

By EUGENE CARR

Occasionally, we hear someone say, "What good does it do for one man to try to change things? One man can't do much when it comes to this business of applying the principles of a religious faith to the situations he encounters in everyday life!"

For an answer, let's look first at what happens in a large convention group or public gathering when the single match test is used to prove the importance of the individual. No doubt, you have been a part of this test at one time or another.

All lights are turned down until the gathering place is in total darkness. Then each person present is asked to take a match from his pocket and hold it until the signal is given to strike it. On the appointed signal, each individual strikes his match, and the whole place lights up as bright as it has ever been.

It is true, one match alone does not make much dent on the darkness. But, by the same token, each match that isn't struck diminishes the amount of light produced. Each individual, the light he can throw, large or small, is important to the overall result.

We do not hesitate to apply this principle to other phases of our lives every day. We believe in the importance of the individual doing his bit, accepting his share of responsibility, in his job, in his home and family life, on the playing field, and in civic and community endeavors.

We do not say, "What good will it do for me to do a good job? There are others where I work who don't seem to care!" We do not give up trying to make our children into fine citizens, simply because other families neglect this obligation. A great baseball pitcher on an otherwise ordinary team continues to pitch his heart out to win. Important elections have been won because one more voter in each precinct decided it was worth while to go to the polls and cast a vote.

The individual and his personal influence are essential in every facet of life and living. He need not feel that it is up to him to set the entire world on fire. He need only to light up the little area around him. Then, with the example he has set, others follow, and a whole city, state, or nation takes on a new brilliance.

A pilot light is a very small flame, but without it we are helpless in igniting the larger fire that generates power and warmth and influence as we seek a sense of security and well being.

Each of us can be a pilot light, capable of setting off a combustion that can change the life of a friend, neighbor, or fellow worker, and, thereby, add to the sum total of good in the world.

Chips Down in California

By Martin Arundel

NEW YORK — Cold cash, public relations know-how and the civil rights issue, in that order, are likely to be the deciding factors in California's crucial June 5 primary between Democratic presidential aspirants Adlai Stevenson and Estes Kefauver.

Stevenson's staff, headed by the New York public relations firm of Edward L. Greenfield & Co., say they are ready to spend upward to $250,000 in the final week of the California primary campaign to win a majority of the state's 68 convention votes for their candidate.

The Kefauver camp is expected to match, if not exceed, the expenditures in behalf of Stevenson. Persistent rumors in New York Democratic circles have New York Governor Averell Harriman, an "inactive" candidate for the Democratic nomination, and his friends furnishing most of Kefauver's money in the California primary.

The story has it that Jerry Finklestein, a onetime close associate of former New York mayor William O'Dwyer, is collecting the funds and acting as the go-between in disbursing the money to Kefauver's forces in their effort to beat Stevenson in California.

FINKLESTEIN refuses to comment on the charge.

Stevenson's eastern manager, former Air Force secretary Thomas K. Finletter, has expressed confidence that the former Illinois governor will carry the primary in the Golden Gate state.

Finletter estimated that Stevenson, if he wins the California primary, will go into the Democratic convention next Aug. 13 with up to 350 votes. Finletter implied that the Stevenson camp's strategy would be to go for the nomination of its candidate on the second ballot.

Stevenson's eastern managers also say it is now unlikely there will be any chance of a Stevenson - Kefauver Democratic ticket because of the Tennessee senator's attacks on Stevenson in Florida.

RIGHT NOW, Finletter and his group are talking a lot about New York Mayor Robert Wagner for second place on the Democratic ticket. They argue that Wagner, son of the former New York senator who fathered the Wagner Labor Relations Act in 1935 and a Roman Catholic, would have an enormous appeal to the labor and Catholic vote in the nation's cities in the north.

Finletter and his close associates insist that they will fight for a civil rights plank in the Democratic platform that backs the Supreme Court's desegregation decision. They seem to feel that their candidate can win the White House, even though he loses three or four southern states. They contend that President Eisenhower is unlikely to sway many southern states into the Republican column next November because he, too, is pro-integration.

Mrs. Elanor Roosevelt, the late president's wife, is in California to campaign for Stevenson. Mrs. Roosevelt is expected to make several speeches to California Negro groups, explaining that Stevenson favors using the full power of the federal government to enforce the high court's desegregation ruling.

OF LATE, THERE have been numerous hints that Stevenson has lost the support of the top brass of the newly-merged AFL-CIO. Not so, say Stevenson's top advisers in the East. Both George Meany and Walter Reuther, the one big union's most powerful politicos, are still for Stevenson, Adlai's eastern spokesmen claim.

Eastern pro-Democratic labor circles maintain that the June 4 meeting of the AFL-CIO executive committee will announce plans for a special AFl-CIO convention next September to endorse a presidential candidate. If Stevenson is the Democratic nominee, these sources say, he'll certainly get the one big union's formal endorsement.

In California's primary, Stevenson backers are relying heavily on the state Democratic clubs and former CIO unions to get out the vote for their candidate. They discount as Kefauver propaganda the statement that the California state CIO is for the Tennessean. But Stevenson's forces concede that Kefauver has considerable support in organized labor in California, both AFL and IO.

Co-Existence Sham Ends in Korea

By David Lawrence

WASHINGTON — The sham of "peaceful co-existence" has been revealed.

The Korean armistice agreement has been torn to shreds by the Communists.

Lawrence

Yet Moscow, which supplies ammunition and aircraft to the Communist armies in North Korea, still hopes to deceive the free world with the idea that the Kremlin has only peaceful intentions toward the other members of the United Nations.

A formal announcement, made by the United Nations command at Panmunjom, has just been given out here at the Department of State. It says that, although the armistice agreement has been in effect for three years, there has been a "notable and persistent failure" of the armistice arrangements.

Specifically, the announcement, made on behalf of the 16 nations which fought the aggressors in Korea, states that inspections have been frustrated and airfields have been built in North Korea in violation of the armistice. The statement says:

"The failure of your side to report introductions of combat aircraft is particularly conspicuous, since your side now maintains in North Korea between 400 and 500 such aircraft, more than half of which are jet fighters or bombers, whereas you had none in that area at the time the armistice agreement was signed."

THIS IS but one of many infractions of the armistice. The whole spirit and letter of the agreement has been disregarded by the Communists because they do not allow the neutral inspection teams to operate in the north while the U.N. has permitted the Communist teams to go anywhere in South Korea.

This is a striking example of bad faith. It is a demonstration of how little credence can be put into even the written word of the Kremlin and its allies, to say nothing of the many oral pronouncements of piety and peacefulness that come through the radio and the press almost daily.

The U.N. announcement deals unequivocally with a disturbing situation. The President has yielded to the pleas of some of the "peaceful co-existence" advocates by letting Gen. Twining, chief of staff of the U.S. Air Force, go to Moscow for the air show there. The whole purpose on the part of the Soviets is to build respectability.

IT MEANS a good deal internally when the gangster government in Moscow gets the benefit of American and British participation in high diplomatic and military conferences—the Russian people are led to believe America approves of the totalitarian regime.

All of this tends to give the people behind the iron curtain the idea that the Moscow government stands high in the world and that the free nations are ready and prepared to welcome the Soviet rulers in further conferences and negotiations.

Meanwhile, the enslaved peoples, and particularly the underground organizations which are striving to keep burning the sparks that must ultimately be inflamed if revolt is to occur, are beginning to wonder if there is a deliberate plot afoot in Washington to discourage and frustrate their efforts.

The Korean armistice episode comes, therefore, as a timely warning to those who have begun to fall for the deceptive propaganda of the Soviets.

REUBEN ROBERTSON, deputy secretary of defense, who has just returned here from a 25-day inspection trip to the Far East and who visited Korea recently, says:

"The build-up of weapons and air strips by the Communists in North Korea is very disturbing. It is in violation of the armistice. There is need for a different situation than now exists. It must be solved within the next year."

American troops stand guard in Korea. They can be attacked at any moment if the Communists choose to provoke an engagement and blame it on the other side. It is a delicate situation that will not be solved by further appeasement of the Communists, either in Peking or in Moscow.

THE NET EFFECT now of the announcement by the U.N. is a suspension of inspection privileges hitherto given in South Korean tertory to the so-called "neutral" teams—those of the Communist stooges, Poland and Czechoslovakia.

But on the world stage, broadly speaking, how can the Soviet Union continue to talk of "peace" when it aids an aggressor to violate a signed military agreement? Small wonder that "peaceful co-existence" is losing its appeal as a slogan of sincerity For it is rapidly proving to be a sample of insincerity.

Cotton Corners

By TRUMAN TWILL

Dear Nephew: We are still mulling over our post-commencement thoughts about the rising generation. Commencement exercises always give us something to talk about for a fortnight.

They provide a fresh connection between the oldsters and the youngsters. For a few moments at least, there exists a sympathetic understanding between those who think they know and those who are eager to learn.

The youngsters realize what they owe the oldsters, which is as it should be. But the main thing is that the oldsters realize what they owe the youngsters.

They owe them, chiefly, the courtesy of tolerance for their dreams and ideals. Nothing crisps me faster or browner than to hear some know-it-all oldster trying to demolish a youngster's faith.

That is why I always have thought it was sound practice to support automatic turnover plans for business and government. It gets rid of oldsters who have been battered and bruised so long that they are unable to dream. They have become the prisoners of their disenchantments and frustrations.

When I looked at the graduates feeling foolish in their caps and gowns, but also feeling proud because they had earned the right to wear them, I had a sense of being able to see all the hopeful young people the world over, ready to show us what they could do with their strength, their dreams, their ideals and their sense of purpose.

They will write the poetry, music and speeches that will make the world meaningful in their time. They will erect the buildings, design and build the machines, solve the difficult problems and fight the wars.

They know what we can do because they have seen the record. The more thoughtful ones know they will be lucky if they can do as well, but they feel sure that luck will be with them. Anyone who doesn't get a lift out of the commencement ceremony is fossilized. As I say, your aunt and I — both confirmed optimists—always feel good after going to commencement.

We did not do much on Memorial Day this year, except bestow a few flowers where we figured no one else would remember. As you know, we do not believe in decorating graves, although we think it is a nice gesture. We did decorate a few mantels and some living room tables, though, and as always it was worth the effort. A boy who was lost in the Normandy invasion. A Spanish - American veteran. One who was lost at sea in World War I. An aviator who didn't come home from Korea. You can find quite an assortment if you have a good memory.

I couldn't show the colors last Wednesday because the pulley on the flagpole had disintegrated since the last time I put up the flag. That used to be a do-it-yourself job, but I never have been comfortable on ladders and have given them up for good. Besides, that cussed flagpole is limber as a buggy whip when you get high enough to reach the top. It's a project for young Tom Stevens, the next time he drops by here to see if there is anything we need done for a dollar.

We appreciated a great deal the chance to share your pride in the commencement exercises. We were just as proud as you were. Whatever happens now, at least you don't need to worry about juvenile delinquency any more.

Working Millionaire

CARBONDALE, Ill. (AP)—Edward S. Allen, 29, Southern Illinois University student, still is working his way through college although he'll be a millionaire next year.

He works in a factory at Herrin and his wife, Mary, is a fountain attendant at the university. He is an industrial education major.

His aunt at Miami, Fla., left him between $800,000 and $1 million but he cannot claim his inheritance until he is 30.

Daily Bible Thought

Magnificent civilizations have crumbled into dust and some are so completely forgotten that humanity cannot read the inscriptions on their ruined palaces. A race of slaves persecuted by a score of empires and decimated in our own day yet flourishes. They made God their fortress and guide. "For this God is our God for ever and ever, He will be our guide unto death."—Ps. 48:14.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

Ah, Those Spanish Dishes

Visitors to New York are astounded at skyline and area changes. It is as if giants played tenpins with the buildings overnight, knocking down small ones and setting up bigger ones in the twinkling of an eye. Columbus Circle, famed to tourists, has already undergone terrific changes and the city's explosive park commissioner, Bob Moses, has returned from a vacation in Spain with a plan to boot 18 blocks off the map and work a breath-taking scenic change north of Christopher's statue.

Bob Moses is an Aladdin who throws the wonderful lamp at critics. He is probably the most colorful commissioner on earth, and the color is that of a Paine's Fireworks Display.

HE IS A GENIUS at planning and a wizard at getting things done but he blows his stack easily. "Why does a chicken cross the street?" has many answers, but nobody has come up with a good reply to "Why does a taxpayer cross Moses, unless he is wearing football equipment?"

His vacation in Spain left him so refreshed he took on everybody before he was off the boat. He floored 18 city blocks, 650 buildings, 6,000 families. Fannie Hurst, childless women and all lovers of Central Park trees. Never has an ocean voyage spread so much temporary devastation.

Some people say it just goes to show what those hot Spanish restaurant dishes do.

BUT IT WAS just an illustration of what Mr. Moses can do when he is refreshed, impatient and annoyed all at one time. He sees big, thinks big and plays big. . . up to the point where a critic cries, "Hold everything!" or "Let's look into this."

When criticized he will let go at anybody. Women and children can come first if he is working under a full head of steam. Just before sailing for Spain, Mr. Moses was assailed by the womenfolk for cutting down trees in Central Park to afford a larger parking area for a restaurant. His first words on his return were, "I don't want to give the impression I am impatient." This from Robert caused everybody to take cover and await the blast, chanting, "When the Redhot Bobbie Comes Bop-Bop-Bopping Along."

Fannie Hurst and childless women critics took the full fury, after which he said, "I have so many big projects I don't have time to argue about cutting down six park trees." Logic and precision-shooting seemed lost, as the fiery commissioner failed to realize that a single tree in a city park can be of major importance, giving more beauty and comfort to some people than a dozen parking lots or 18 rebuilt city blocks.

HE SEEMED to be revising the line in a famous poem to read, "Only Bob can make or break a tree." But it was all exciting and served to heat up a cold spring. Two weeks in Spain must be wonderful. With three Bob might tear down Radio City, rebuild Manhattan Island, bar Fannie Hurst from the Mall and put every tree on probation.

WHATEVER BECAME of the U.N.'s promise to make "continuous efforts to free American prisoners in Red China"?

Frank Merriwell, spotless hero to the kids of a former generation, is to be featured in the movies and on TV. . . Our bet is that he will never be recognizable. . . He stood for clean fighting, good sportsmanship and fair play under all conditions, but in Hollywood's standardized patterns he will be required to join the heroes who take a dozen punches to do the work of one, employ the jagged bottle for extra brutalities and never consider a foe vanquished until he has been beaten to a pulp and left under the overturned saloon piano.

Art Carney, one of the most genuinely funny comics in the country, has signed to play a straight lead in "Seven Year Itch" this summer. . . . He is a capable and versatile performer, but we think he has created a rare character, on the Gleason show, combining touches from Dickens, Runyon and the creators of great strip cartoons . . And we hate to see him discard it or a reasonable facsimile thereof.

News of Other Years

40 YEARS AGO — Sixty-five Marion High school seniors received their diplomas in commencement exercises held at the Chautauqua pavilion in Garfield Park. It was the first class to hold commencement exercises there.

Death Claims Labor Leader Matthew Woll

NEW YORK (AP)—Matthew Woll, 76, an AFL-CIO vice president and a labor union leader for more than half a century, died Friday night in New York Hospital.

Woll was a vice president of the old AFL 36 years. When the AFL merged with the CIO last year, he became a vice president and executive committee member of the combined organization.

In Forest Park, Pa., AFL-CIO President George Meany said in a statement.

"The entire labor movement will mourn the passing of Matthew Woll. He served the cause of the nation's workers with constant faith, courage and sound judgment for half a century."

For 30 years Woll was president of the Union Labor Life Insurance Co., set up to handle death benefits and other insurance features for union members. He resigned last year to become the firm's general executive chairman.

Born in Luxembourg, Woll came to this country at the age of 10. He became an apprentice photo-engraver six years later. In 1904 he was elected president of the International Photo - Engravers Union.

$307,806 Tax Refund To Be Distributed Here

The May settlement of 1956 general personal property and classified tax collections in Marion County have been certified by the state auditor, according to County Auditor Maurice Clements.

Collections for the general fund totalled $243,507, while the classified tax fund got $64,299. The grand total was $307,806, Mr. Clements said.

Distributions to villages, townships and Marion City, plus the schools and library are expected to be made early next week.

McKeon Released From Stockade at Parris Island Base

PARRIS ISLAND, S C (AP) — A Marine Corps drill instructor who took a recruit platoon on a disciplinary night march that resulted in the drowning of six young men has been released from confinement

S. Sgt Matthew B McKeon, 31, is awaiting a court martial at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot here He is charged with manslaughter in the death of six recruits and with having been under the influence of liquor at the time

The court - martial, originally scheduled for May 14, has been postponed until July 14

McKeon had been in confinement since April 8, the night of the march

A Marine Corps announcement Friday said McKeon's status was changed May 23 from "confinement awaiting court martial" to "restriction in lieu of arrest" No explanation was given about the delay in making the announcement

His release was the result, the announcement said, of a request to the secretary of the Navy from his defense counsel, Emile Z Berman of New York.

Authorities said McKeon's restriction is liberal enough to permit him to go to his home in nearby Port Royal when not on duty He has a wife and two small children

McKeon was assigned duty in the Catholic chaplain's office after his release

Sparkman Heads Alabama's Slate

MONTGOMERY, Ala (AP) —Sen John Sparkman Friday night was elected chairman of Alabama s 52 member delegation to the Democratic National Convention in August

The 1952 vice presidential nominee was elected 39-10 over former Rep Laurie Battle of Birmingham

Sparkman took a firm stand against any bolt from the Democratic party by the southern states He told reporters that any such action would accomplish nothing "other than assuring a Republican victory"

Sparkman repeated his belief that Adlai Stevenson would win the Democratic nomination, and that the Democratic party would win the presidential election in November

Asia's Revolution To Continue, Says Head of Indonesia

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Indonesia s President Sukarno heads for Salt Lake City, Canada and home today after a blunt policy speech in which he said Asia's 'explosive revolution" will continue until the wants of the underprivileged are satisfied and the fettered are freed

In perhaps his frankest and most eloquent address in his 18-day state visit to the United States the 54-year old chief of state Friday night told the World Affairs Council of northern California

"We have no time for the slow progress of evolution It is true that our national revolution cannot extend simultaneously into all fields of national endeavor But we must seek to speed up evolution We must seek explosive evolution "

Included were topographic surveys, in preparation for systematic tile drainage, for Michael Brose, Chatfield Township, and Dale Harer, Lykens Township. Profile surveys for an outlet were completed for L. C. Haaser, Bucyrus, Donald Shealy, Chatfield, Dr. K. H. Barth, New Washington, Hubert Barth, Oceola, and F. L. Bogen, Leesville.

Farm ponds were surveyed for Minor Shroll and Arthur Leuthold, both of near Bucyrus, and M. W. Sipe, Oceola.

Rev. Hollensen Will Address Harding Class

Rev. M. E. Hollensen, pastor of Emanuel Lutheran Church, will talk on "A Cake Not Turned," at baccalaureate exercises for Harding High School seniors in the school auditorium Sunday at 4 p.m.

The program will be preceded by an organ recital by Miss Loretta Caskey, beginning at 3:30 p.m. Her selections will include "Melody in F," Rubenstein; "Liebestraum," Liszt; "Finlandia," Sibelius; "Aria," Bach; "Londonderry Air," Irish song; "Panis Angelicus," Franck; "O Sole Mio," DeCapua; and "Consolation," Mendelssohn.

The processional, "War March of the Priests," Mendelssohn, will be played by the Harding Orchestra, and the anthem, "Never Grow Tired of Praying," Youse, is to be sung by the Harding Choir, under the direction of L. G. Jones, vocal music supervisor in Marion City schools.

Rev. W. L. Stafford, pastor of Wesley Methodist Church, will read from scripture and Rev. H. V. Falor, pastor of the Oakland EUB Church, will offer prayer. The audience will join in singing the hymn, "Beneath the Cross of Jesus."

Following Rev. Hollensen's address, Rev. Strother J. Williams will give the benediction, with the response, "The Lord Bless You and Keep You," Luthkin, sung by the Harding choir. The program will conclude with the playing of the recessional, "Triumphal March," Handel, by the orchestra.

Members of the Harding student council are in charge of decorations.

For the program, a Salvation Army film entitled "Hands of Mercy" will be shown and the apple coffee cake contest will be held.

Couple Is Headed For Top TV Prize

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — A Negro liquor store owner - insurance broker and his wife appear to be headed for the biggest jackpot earnings in radio-TV history.

Last Tuesday Steve and Dorothy Rowland won for the eighth time on Edgar Bergen's "Do You Trust Your Wife?" Each victory has entitled them to $100 weekly income for a year, and the end is not in sight yet. Because the income is spread over eight or more years, their net return will be more than the heavily taxed $100,000 and $64,000 winners.

The Rowlands, a personable, soft spoken couple, are naturally elated, but they remain level-headed about their winnings.

"We're setting up a trust fund to handle the money," said Rowland. "The money won't change our lives. After five years or so, perhaps my wife and I will take a trip. But most of the money will be held in trust for our children's college education and to give them a little nest egg to start out in life with." Their children are Steve Jr., 13, and Nancy, 11.

"Indeed, I did trust my wife," Rowland remarked. "She answered 99 per cent of the questions; I only did the ones on sports and music. She did anything that required any intelligence.

Rowland, 40, was born in Los Angeles and majored in business administration at USC and the University of Hawaii. His wife, 39, is from Phoenix and was graduated from Arizona State Teachers College. He is an Army veteran, having won a battlefield commission in Europe during World War II.

Prisoners Get Booklet Outlining Their Rights

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A booklet designed to inform an arrested person of his rights guaranteed by the U. S. and Ohio Constitutions was handed persons entering city prison and Franklin County jail Friday.

The booklet, entitled "You Have Been Arrested," also informs prisoners what is expected of them and what they may expect of law enforcement officials.

Grinnell College Given Three Million Dollars

MUSKOGEE, Okla. (AP) —Grinnell College, Grinnell, Iowa, was left more than three million dollars by the late J. F. Darby, Tulsa and Muskogee oil man, it was disclosed Friday.

The estate was distributed by County Judge J. E. Beavers. The bulk of the fortune went to the college, which has less than a thousand students.

Darby's widow, Mrs. Marine Poole Darby, Muskogee, received $100,000.

Theater Attractions

Following is a summary of the motion pictures that will be presented at theaters in Marion next week.

—Ohio—

"The Searchers," a Vistavision and technicolor film set against the American southwest, is the current attraction at the Ohio Theater. Co-starring John Wayne with Jeffrey Hunter, Vera Miles, Ward Bond and Natalie Wood, it will show through Monday.

In "The Searchers," Wayne portrays a hard-bitten Texan who returns to his home to find his two nieces stolen by raiding Comanche Indians.

There follows the story of the grim and unrelenting five year search by Wayne and Jeffrey Hunter for the stolen girls.

Billed for Tuesday and Wednesday as a double feature are two English made films, "The Deadliest Sin" and "Wicked Wife." The former stars Sydney Chaplin, Audrey Dalton, John Bentley and Peter Hammond, and heading the cast in the latter are Nigel Patrick, Beatrice Campbell, Moira Lister and Betty Ann Davies.

In "The Deadliest Sin," Sydney Chaplin returns to England after a long criminal record in America and joins his sister, Audrey Dalton, whose boy friend is Peter Hammond. Patrick Allen, knowing of Chaplin's record, attempts blackmail.

They fight, Hammond tries to intercede and accidentally shoots Allen. A devout Catholic, Hammond feels that he must go to confession and during this Father John Welsh is wounded by a pistol shot. Then, Scotland Yard inspector John Bentley takes charge.

"Wicked Wife" concerns a murder, that of Moira Lister, wife of Nigel Patrick. She takes to drinking and partying with other men to relieve the boredom of living in the country. When she returns from a party in Liverpool, she and Patrick quarrel. The next morning she is found dead in Liverpool. Patrick is immediately suspected of the killing.

A three unit racing show has been billed for Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Included will be "Hot Rod" starring James Lydon, "Jalopy" with the Bowery Boys and "The Hottest 500," filmed in color and telling the story of the Indianapolis Speedway race.

—Palace—

"The Birds and the Bees," in which television comic George Gobel makes his movie debut, will be the main attraction of a double feature Sunday, Monday and Tuesday at the Palace Theater.

Starred with Gobel in the Vistavision technicolor comedy are Mitzi Gaynor and David Niven, while Reginald Gardiner and Fred Clark head the supporting cast.

Gobel is cast as a shy and naive heir to a frankfurter fortune. Returning from a six-months' safari in Africa, his first feminine contact is Mitzi Gaynor who, with her card shark father David Niven and his partner Reginald Gardiner, plans to trick George out of his millions.

Love complicates things as Mitzi falls for George, and in an effort to protect him, finds herself pitted against her own father.

Also showing in the double billing will be "The Scarlet Hour," a suspense drama starring Carol Ohmart, Tom Tryon and Jody Lawrance.

The story of a seductive, unhappily married young wife and the deadly plot she hatches to satisfy her driving need for wealth is told in "The Scarlet Hour." In love with Tyron, her husband's trusted employe and wanting freedom and the money to enjoy it with, Carol Ohmart as the wife hatches a dangerous plot to gain both and also Tyron in the bargain.

Tryon, who is honest, would rather do things the square way, but trapped by Carol's appeal, he plunges ahead with her. Nothing goes right and they find themselves involved in an unplanned murder.

Wednesday through Saturday, a double feature showing will include Alfred Hitchcock's "The Man Who Knew Too Much" starring James Stewart and Doris Day, and "Ghost Town" with Kent Taylor, John Smith and Marian Carr.

"The Man Who Knew Too Much" is a story of political intrigue, kidnapping and murder. Stewart and Miss Day are cast as a doctor and his singer wife on vacation in Marrakech, French Morocco. Stewart witnesses the knifing of an Arab in the city's back streets and while tending the dying man is given information of an impending assassination. He thus becomes a dangerous man to the plotters and from that moment on neither he nor anyone belonging to him are safe.

The story in "Ghost Town," a western suspense drama, opens with an oddly assorted group in a stagecoach making its way across Indian Territory being forced to "hole up" in a Ghost Town when Chief Dull Knife and his tribe attacks them.

During the siege, the people undergo many changes of character, with both the best and worst brought out in them.

A U.S. CARRIER CREW fights to keep its flaming ship afloat in "Battle Stations," drama of a flat-top's fighting men, one of two first run features billed for showing Wednesday through Saturday at the North Drive-In Theater. John Lund, William Bendix, Keefe Brasselle, Richard Boone and William Leslie are starred.

—North Drive-In—

"The Kentuckian," in Cinemascope and technicolor and starring Burt Lancaster, Diana Lynn and Dianne Foster, plus "Big Combo" with Cornel Wilde and Richard Conte, will be shown Sunday through Tuesday at the North Drive-In Theater.

"The Kentuckian" is the story of a man and his son and their dog on the frontier in 1820. Burt Lancaster is seen in the role of Big Eli Wakefield, a hunter who found the wild frontier too tame for him and wanted to head westward where a man had room to move about. In the course of his attempt to get to Texas he engages in several fights and gun battles.

In the story, the conservative school teacher of a small frontier town falls in love with Lancaster but realizes it would be cruel to tie him down as a merchant in a little town and so loses him to a more wild, impulsive backwoods' girl whose nature and interests are similar to Eli's.

Two first run features billed for Wednesday through Saturday include "Battle Stations," drama of a flat-top's fighting men, and "Joe Macbeth," a gangland thriller. The former stars John Lund, William Bendix, Keefe Brasselle, Richard Boone and William Leslie, and heading the cast in the latter are Paul Douglas and Ruth Roman.

As America's mightiest naval carrier task force prepares to launch its aerial might in what is hoped will be the final punch of the war, an enemy bomber slips through the anti-aircraft and fighter cover to unleash its explosive fury against a battle-hardened flat-top. The crew's grim determination to keep the "lady" from going down is told in "Battle Stations." The film charts the cruise of the carrier from the time she leaves her stateside berth to the last fury of combat in which she is engaged.

"Joe Macbeth" is the story of a racketeer with a lust for power driven onward by a woman with a genius for murder.

—South Drive-In—

"The Long, Long Trailer," hilarious comedy of a honeymoon on wheels and starring Lucille Ball and Desi Arnaz, will be shown Sunday through Tuesday at the South Drive-In Theater along with "The Marauders," an outdoor drama. The latter stars Dan Duryea, Jeff Richards, Keenan Wynn and Jarma Lewis.

In "The Long, Long Trailer" Lucille and Desi are seen as husband and wife, as Nick and Tacy Collini, newlyweds who embark on a cross - country honeymoon in a trailer. Their adventures, comic mishaps, semi-tragedies and countless crises, as they start out from California to Nick's engineering job in Colorado, are punctuated with one situation after the other in their valiant attempts to set up housekeeping in their mobile mansion.

The story in "The Marauders" centers on the desperate attempt of an Arizona "squatter" to protect his homestead from being wiped out by hostile cattle ranchers. The story's action all takes place within a 24-hour period, with an isolated canyon the setting.

Billed for Wednesday through Saturday as a double feature will be "Sitting Bull," in Cinemascope, along with "Redheads From Seattle." The former stars Dale Robertson and Mary Murphy, and heading the cast in the latter are Rhonda Fleming and Guy Mitchell.

—State—

"Ransom" starring Glenn Ford and Donna Reed, and "Three Stripes in the Sun" with Aldo Ray and Phil Carey, will be shown Sunday and Monday at the State Theater.

Billed for Tuesday and Wednesday are "Without Reservations" and "World For Ransom." The former stars John Wayne and Claudette Colbert and heading the cast in the latter is Dan Duryea.

Mount Gilead's Population Is Total of 3,300

MOUNT GILEAD — The population of Mount Gilead has grown by nearly 1,000 persons in the last six years, according to estimates made this week by village officials.

The population of the village at the 1950 census was 2,342. The estimated population now is between 3,366 and 3,420.

L. L. Garver, local manager of the Ohio Edison Co., said the firm has between 935 and 950 residential electric meters in the village. The U. S. Census Bureau recently announced that there are 3.6 persons per family in the United States.

Multiplying the electric company's figures and the census bureau's estimate, the local officials have come up with the present estimate of the village population.

The growth is the fastest in the history of the village. At the 1940 census, the population here was 2,003, compared with the 2,342 in 1950. In 1930 it was 1,871. It was 1,837 in 1920 and back in 1850 it was only 646.

The village still has along way to go before reaching the level of a city which is 5,000 population. The rate of 1,000 gain per six years would have to nearly be doubled to enable Mount Gilead to reach the level of a city by 1960, the next census year.

Body of Unknown Man Is Brother's, Workman Finds

NORTH BRUNSWICK, N.J. (AP)—A 45-year-old man about to go to his grave unknown was identified Friday by a cemetery worker—the dead man's brother.

William Jaqui, Middlesex County coroner, told this story.

Albert Louis Zaabadick, the cemetery worker, was preparing the grave for an unidentified man who had drowned accidentally in a shallow brook Thursday.

Jaqui, who had gone to the Van Liew Cemetery to arrange for the burial, began describing the dead man's clothes to Zaabadick and another caretaker.

The cemetery worker said the description fitted the clothes belonging to his brother, Joseph, 45. The coroner then took the cemetery worker to the morgue where he identified the dead man's clothes. Subsequent fingerprinting made the identification positive.

21,000 Idle in Ohio

WASHINGTON (AP) — Michigan, Indiana and Ohio showed the largest number of laid off auto workers during the week ended May 26, the Labor Department reported Friday.

The bureau said Ohio accounted for nearly 21,000 laid off workers.

JAMES KNOX POLK

Polk Place
Nashville, Tenn.

Born November 2, 1795, near Little Sugar Creek, North Carolina. A few years later his father, a farmer of ordinary means, moved the family to Tennessee.

Ambitious to be a teacher, he took his first job as a clerk in a country store and his efforts at self-education prompted his father to send him to the University of North Carolina, where he graduated in 1818. He was a brilliant student in mathematics and classics; delivered the class salutatory oration in Latin. Favorite pastimes were reading and study.

Entered a law office at Nashville, and was admitted to the bar in two years. For three years he was a country lawyer in his boyhood town, Columbia, Tennessee. At 28, he was elected a member of the Tennessee Legislature. At 30, member of Congress, serving continuously for 14 years, and was Speaker of the House. At 44, Governor of Tennessee.

Following two defeats for re-election as Governor, he was nominated by the Democrats for the Presidency in 1844. Comparatively unknown and unthought of twenty-four hours before, he became the first Presidential "dark horse" candidate. His firm stand on the Texas and Oregon questions gained the nomination for him.

Inaugurated eleventh President of the United States March 4, 1845. He declined to run a second term. During his administration disputes arising from the annexation of Texas were settled; California, New Mexico, and adjoining areas were ceded to the U. S. as a result of the Mexican War; and territory in the Northwest confirmed by the Oregon settlement. More square miles were added to the Union than in any administration except Jefferson's, and the power of the Monroe Doctrine was firmly established. The westward rush started with the discovery of gold in California.

Broken by the heavy labor of his term, he retired to his home in Nashville, where he died only three months later, June 15, 1849, aged 53.

Teenagers' Stunt Works Too Well

TEXARKANA, Tex. (AP) — Four teen-agers who wanted to stir up a little excitement got more than they bargained for Friday.

One of the boys climbed in the trunk of a car and let an arm hang out. Ketchup was poured over the dangling arm. Then his companions drove into a filling station and asked directions "to the river."

The attendant directed them to the Red River and as the car drove away he saw the dangling arm. He called officers who set up roadblocks in Texas and Arkansas.

The youths, arrested at Garland, Ark., were charged with malicious mischief and released on bonds of $30.25 each.

Two Men Rescue Dog Trapped on Mountain

ATLANTA (AP) — Two men rescued a dog trapped on nearby Stone Mountain Friday, descending by rope about 750 feet to reach the frightened animal.

Elias Nour, a store owner who specializes in Stone Mountain rescues, and B. S. Ivey of the DeKalb County Police worked their way down from the top of the mountain, the world's largest block of granite.

The dog had slipped and fallen until stopped by an iron stake left by workers carving the cliff years ago. The stake was the only obstacle before a sheer fall of 350 feet.

The dog appeared badly shaken up and was taken to the Atlanta Humane Society for treatment.

YMCA Dance Planned

A Junior High School Co-Ed "sock hop" is scheduled for Thursday night at the YMCA. Pupils of the seventh, eighth and ninth grades, and sixth grade pupils entering the seventh next year, of the public and parochial schools are eligible to attend. Dancing will be from 7 to 9 p.m. with music by the Stardusters. Admission is 40 cents for non-members of the club and 20 cents for club members. Miss Janet Frew at the YMCA is chairman.

Adm. McManes Reviews Sons In Dress Parade at Annapolis

Dress parade at the Naval Academy in Annapolis last Tuesday held special significance for a former Marion resident and his 20-year-old twin sons.

The reviewing officer that day was Rear Adm. Kenmore M. McManes, commander of a 20-vessel battleship - cruiser force, and among those parading during the late afternoon ceremony were Midshipmen Spencer and Kenmore R. McManes, his sons. Both are second-classmen (juniors) at the academy. They are roommates and members of the same company.

The occasion marked the first time Adm. McManes, a 1922 graduate of the Academy, had been accorded the honor of taking such a review. For the sons, it was the last parade this year in which their unit, the 18th company, would march with the brigade and company colors. At the final review Thursday, the colors were turned over to the new top-ranked company in the brigade.

The young men are graduates of Bullis Preparatory School, Silver Springs, Md., which they attended one year. For 11 months in 1952-53 they were students together at the Yokohama American High School in Japan while their father was stationed there. Previously they had gone to elementary school in Annapolis, Leland Junior High School, Bethesda, and the Bethesda-Chevy Chase High School.

Today, when their father takes the fleet on a practice cruise that will include Scandinavian, German and English ports of call, the sons will go with him, but on different ships. Admiral McManes will be aboard his flagship, the battleship Iowa. His sons will be on the cruiser Macon.

Admiral McManes was awarded honors for exceptionally meritorious conduct in the performance of outstanding service in World War II. He served as a special naval observer in London from the time the United States entered the war until March 1943, when he assumed command of Destroyer Squadron 24 and Destroyer Division 24. During the Pacific war he led a destroyer squadron in a smashing victory over the Japanese in the naval battle of Surigao Strait in October of 1944 which earned him the Navy Cross.

After the war he served in Washington as chief of the administrative law division and later assumed command of the USS Houston. In 1950 he was made commander of the destroyer Flotilla I in Japan, off Korea. Prior to his present assignment he completed another tour in Washington.

A native of Galion, he is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Albert F. McManes. He was appointed to the U. S. Naval Academy July 9, 1918, by the then Senator Warren G. Harding. He was a member of the class of 1918 at Marion High School. His father was an engineer with the Erie Railroad Co.

The McManes family home is at 4707 Elmhirst Lane, Bethesda.

C. of C. Ready To Open Drive For Members

Kickoff for the annual membership drive of the Marion Chamber of Commerce will be held with a breakfast slated for 8 a.m. Tuesday at Hotel Harding.

Speaker for the affair will be LaVerne Kreuter, manager of the Quaker Oats Co. plant here. He will talk on his experiences with the local Chamber of Commerce during the last 11 years and what those experiences have meant to him and the Quaker Oats Co.

Goal in the membership drive will be to add 300 new members to the Marion Chamber.

Co-chairmen of the membership drive committee are John Zimmerman and Odell Thompson and they will be assisted by seven captains and 50 workers.

First report meeting will be held Friday noon at the hotel with the committee workers to give a report on the progress of the drive up to that time.

Final report meeting will be held at 4 p.m., Tuesday, June 12 in the Chamber offices on S. Main St.

New Head of Division Named by Erie Railroad

Francis E. Navin, assistant superintendent of the Erie Railroad's Mahoning division at Youngstown and a former Marionite, assumed duties as superintendent of the Marion division at Huntginton, Ind., effective Friday.

A native of Marion, Mr. Navin succeeded E. J. Robisch, who was appointed superintendent here. He had served as assistant superintendent of the Mahoning division since 1951.

Mr. Navin began his career with the Erie Railroad as a yard clerk in 1919 and became yardmaster in 1929. Advancing to general yardmaster at the Erie's 51st St. freight yard in Chicago in 1941, he was appointed to that position here the following year.

In 1944, Mr. Navin was promoted to trainmaster at Youngstown and then went to Meadville in that capacity in 1947 before returning to Youngstown in 1951.

Negroes Quit Riding Buses In Tallahassee

TALLAHASSEE Fla (AP)—A Negro boycott of city buses became almost 100 per cent effective today

With most Tallahassee Negroes either walking or using car pool transportation provided by boycott leaders efforts continued to gain clarification of the terms under which they will consent to ride the buses again

The principal question appeared to be what is meant by the Negro demand that bus seating be on a 'first come, first served basis'

Executive Editor Malcolm B Johnson of the Tallahassee Democrat met with a Negro delegation to seek a more specific phrasing of the request but reported no agreement could be reached "on any statement clarifying or explaining the exact meaning of the phrase'

Negroes said when the demand was first announced they didn't want any member of their race to be forced to stand while a bus had vacant seats

Attorneys for the Cities Transit Bus Co, the City of Tallahassee and Negro groups also met to clarify issues involved in the boycott but reported no action so far

No outbreaks of violence have been reported in the six-day-old boycott though students of Florida A & M University for Negroes have been hooting more or less good - naturedly at empty buses traveling through the campus

The boycott was born on the university campus after two coeds were arrested for refusing to move to the rear of a bus

Radio Signals From Venus Heard at OSU

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The director of Ohio State University's radio observatory has reported that several times during May the observatory received strong radio signals from the planet Venus

Dr John D Kraus said Friday it was the first time the planet has been heard from It is more than 27 million miles from earth

Kraus said signals were observed on each occasion for a period of several hours The signals consisted of crackling sounds somewhat similar to radio static from thunderstorms on earth, he added

The signals may indicate similar storms on Venus, the scientist said The planet often is called the earth's twin since it is nearly the same size and comes closer than any other planet

The observations were made with a radio telescope

Kraus said Venus is presently approaching earth at a speed of 500 000 miles per day, and in the evening is the brightest object in the western sky

He said by June 22, Venus will reach its point of nearest approach 27 million miles, and then start to recede

The newly discovered radio signals are being studied to learn more about atmospheric conditions surrounding Venus

The planet is the second from which radio signals have been detected Kraus said Carnegie Institution of Washington, D C, picked up radio noises from Jupiter last year

$149,887 in Social Security Payments Reported in County

Monthly payments of $21,773 to 521 widowed mothers and minor children accounted for 15 per cent of $149 887 in social security benefits paid Marion County residents last December, Dorothy Hilbert, social security district manager in Marion, said today

Noting that many persons think social security provides protection only for older men and women she added that the $21,773 shows it is also a program benefiting children

At the end of last year about 1,275,000 children throughout the nation were receiving monthly benefit payments under the social security law, she said Also some 300 000 mothers of children under 18 received monthly survivors insurance benefits she added Mothers and children in 9 out of 10 families can now receive monthly survivors insurance benefits if death should take the family breadwinner she said

The total of 2 927 persons who received the $149 887 each month at the end of 1955 marked a 13 per cent increase in the number of beneficiaries over the last of 1954, Miss Hilbert said

'With the bringing in of self-employed farmers, farm workers, and other groups previously excluded the old age and survivors insurance program achieved almost universal coverage at the beginning of 1955," she said

When a worker retires or dies, he or his survivors should contact the Marion social security office for assistance in making a claim for benefits, Miss Hilbert said 'In fact the social security office should be contacted (1) when a worker reaches 65 regardless of retirement, (2) when he reaches 72 regardless of earnings, (3) when an insured member in a family dies and (4) when a worker becomes totally disabled for any gainful employment or self employment The local office is located at 127 W Church St

O'Rourke Will Serve as Head Of Recreation

Selection of Paul O'Rourke as recreation director for Marion City Parks this summer was announced today by the city recreation commission

A teacher at Harding High School, Mr O Rourke will be serving his second summer as city recreation director He directed the activities in the parks and playgrounds last year also

He announced today that the summer playground program this year will start on June 18 and extend through August 18

Other personnel selected to assist Mr O'Rourke include Harold Hazlett, also a teacher at Harding High School, Lester Burger a teacher at Taft Junior High School, Miss Barbara Vance, a teacher at Silver St School, and Richard Smith principal at Jackson Local School in Union County

Arts and crafts instructor for the summer will be Miss Judy Neighbours formerly of LaPorte, Ind, but now of 390 S Greenwood St A student at DePauw University at Green Castle Ind, she previously was employed in the recreation program at LaPorte Her father H Rayhue Neighbours, is employed at the Marion division plant of the Whirlpool - Seeger Corp

Full details of the summer playground program will be announced as soon as it is completed, Mr O'Rourke said

U.S. Moral Corruption Is Deplored by Baptists

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Moral corruption has enveloped 'a large segment of American life," Clifton J Allen, Nashville Tenn, told the closing session of the Southern Baptist Convention today

Allen, editorial secretary of the Baptist Sunday School Board called for all members of the denomination, its churches and agencies to further SBC's 'Crusade for Christian Morality'

His talk highlighted a brief session that wound up the 4 day meet

The convention completed its business Friday by choosing Louisville Ky for its 1959 convention city The SBC will meet in Chicago next year and at Houston, Tex, in 1958

Woodcutting Students Barred From Dance

CLEVELAND (AP)—The woodchoppers couldn't go to the ball

Ten Chagrin Falls High School juniors were barred from the annual junior-senior prom Friday night because they cut down 15 blue spruce trees in South Russell village in Geauga County

The boys had hoped to use the trees to decorate the school gymnasium

An official of the Geauga County sheriff's office discovered the boys as they were sawing away They were jailed overnight

They will have to pay the cost of the trees and court costs' said Lewis Sands Chagrin Falls superintendent of schools.

Motorist Arrested After Auto Mishap

DELAWARE — Two persons were injured, none seriously, in one accident investigated this morning by highway patrolmen from the Delaware post

The mishap occurred at 6 45 a m, almost four miles north of the Franklin - Delaware County line on Route 315

Patrolmen said a car driven by Fred Blankenship Jr, 21, near Vanceburg, traveling at a reported 60 to 70 miles-per hour, left the highway traveled 345 feet on the right berm, continued on 102 feet diagonally across the highway, ran 69 feet on the left berm, flew through the air over a 15-foot gorge and came to a rest on its wheels against a culvert

Blankenship's wife, Faye Kay, 19, suffered a fractured nose, contusions and abrasions Another passenger John Blankenship, 18 brother of the driver, sustained a lacerated forehead Both were taken to Delaware's Jane Case Hospital in a Doty ambulance, treated and released, patrolmen said

Blankenship, unhurt, was arrested for unsafe operation of a motor vehicle and was to appear in Delaware Municipal Court this morning, according to the report

Jazz Singer's Supper Interrupted by Police

CLEVELAND (AP)—Police interrupted jazz singer Dinah Washington's diet breaking supper early today, but they were more interested in a card game than her intake of calories

Miss Washington was a guest in a home when two patrolmen entered and interrupted a stud poker game in which the singer was not a participant

'I was eating lamb and hot rolls and lima beans the first good meal since I went off my diet yesterday" the singer said "When I saw the policemen I thought it was a joke and I nearly laughed my hips off'

However the raid was not a joke and several guests were carted off in a paddy wagon

Merger Talks By Ohio AFL, CIO Break Off

CANTON, Ohio (AP)—Merger talks between the Ohio Federation of Labor and the Ohio CIO Council have been broken off, according to letters mailed by CIO leaders to affiliated unions

The letters, signed by Ray Ross CIO council president, and John R Rooney, secretary - treasurer said the talks reached an impasse after two meetings "when state federation negotiators insisted upon the CIO negotiating team agreeing to certain proposals they had in mind on one or more key issues" The CIO leaders said the AFL demands were 'entirely unacceptable'

The CIO's nine - member negotiating team was instructed by the council executive board to drop all discussions concerning the merger until the AFL "indicates it is willing to recede from its position," the letters said

One issue in dispute was reported to be an AFL demand that it be granted the two top executive positions in the merged union The CIO council argued that it had 482,000 members in Ohio compared to the AFL's 275,000

Jurisdiction over maintenance men who perform some skilled trades in factories was said to be another issue on which the labor groups could not agree

Politics

northern California hit hard on the civil rights issue — a prime one in that state

He said in San Francisco that Stevenson was pictured in the Florida primary campaign as a "Moderate" on the racial integration question But in California, Kefauver said, Stevenson is being put forward as a "civil rights crusader"

Kefauver, who lost the Florida primary to Stevenson by a slim popular vote margin, said his opponent's 'civil rights equivocation has made it all but impossible for the big delegations of New York and Michigan—yes, and a large section of Illinois, now—to support him at the convention"

Supports Court Decision

Stevenson has replied to previous Kefauver attacks along this line by saying he supports the Supreme Court's school integration decision as the law of the land, and that he believes in its implementation by moderate, non forceful means He also contends his position has been consistent

Kefauver contended also that a Stevenson victory next Tuesday would put what Kefauver called the 'old guard" in control of the California Democratic party This the senator said would lead to loss of the state in the November election

At Anaheim, in southern California, Stevenson replied to this thrust by saying the Democratic party will carry California 'on the failures of the Eisenhower administration—and not on anything else"

Stevenson argued that this country's world position is deteriorating under what he said is a 'confused and divided Republican administration"

Michigan Democrats gathered in Grand Rapids for a state convention at which a 44 vote national convention delegation was scheduled to be chosen The delegation was expected to be instructed to support Gov G Mennen Williams as a favorite son presidential candidate Party leaders planned to move for adoption of a strong statement on civil rights

Iowa Delegates Picked

At Des Moines Friday Iowa Democrats met and picked a 24 vote convention delegation The group, made up of 82 delegates and alternates, will be uninstructed But there were indications of a majority leaning toward Stevenson

time had caused the Yugoslav leader to revolt against Soviet domination and develop an independent Communist position

Bulganin and Khrushchev visited Tito last year in an effort to win him back Now Tito is returning the visit and they have laid out the red carpet for him

Molotov had been identified with the anti Tito policy in 1948 and it was significant that he did not make the trip with Bulganin and Khrushchev to Belgrade last year Shepilov did

The removal of Molotov—and authorities here have no doubt that it was a removal instead of a voluntary resignation—is therefore construed as a move pleasing to Tito just as the appointment of Shepilov is believed to be The timing by Khrushchev and Bulganin was presumably deliberate in relation to Tito's arrival

American officials still feel, as they did a year ago, that while Tito is glad to have normal relations with Russia and its satellites he will not again subordinate the interests of his country to the interests of the Soviet Union

There have been reports for many months among Western diplomats that Molotov was not very happy with the peaceful coexistence policy—the display of tub-thumping good will—toward Western powers and the neutrals which Bulganin and Khrushchev have developed in numerous public statements and foreign travels This led to speculation that in the inner councils of the Soviet regime Molotov has opposed many things that Bulganin and Khrushchev wanted to do

Since Shepilov's growing prominence in Soviet affairs has taken place chiefly during the post Stalin period, the assumption here is that he is in accord with the Bulganin Khrushchev policies To this extent Soviet diplomacy may become somewhat more efficient At least the man formally responsible for carrying out the government's decisions will not be antagonistic to them

Long Road Ahead

Hearings on Civil Rights Drag On in Washington

WASHINGTON (AP) — The long, long trail that lies ahead for civil rights measures was outlined today with word from the Senate Judiciary Committee that some 75 opposition witnesses remain to be heard

The committee, under the chairmanship of Sen Eastland (D-Miss), heard Friday from one opposition witness, Atty Gen William B Rodman Jr. of North Carolina

The next hearing was tentatively set for next Friday, in line with the committee's recent practice of holding one hearing a week on civil rights legislation

So far all the hearings have been held in the afternoons which makes them subject to interruption or cancellation if the members are called to the Senate floor to answer quorum calls or to vote on bills up for action The Senate was not in session Friday

Proponents of the bills, including spokesmen for the National Assn for the Advancement of Colored People, were heard first Now the committee has shifted to taking opposition testimony

Robert Young, staff counsel for the committee, said that eight or nine Southern state attorneys general are scheduled to testify Rodman was the first of these and one or more is to be heard next Friday

Young said about an equal number of Southern senators and twice as many House members have asked to be heard, as have former Govs Herman Talmadge of Georgia and James F Byrnes of South Carolina and a sizable number of other Southerners He estimated opposition witnesses total about 75 altogether

If the committee concludes its hearings and recommends legislation before the end of the session the threat of a Southern filibuster in the Senate itself will still lie ahead

The administration's program not submitted to Congress until April calls for the appointment of a civil rights commission, the establishment of a civil rights division in the Justice Department, and increased powers for the attorney general to enforce civil rights

A measure embodying these proposals has won the approval of the House Judiciary Committee and now is pending before the Rules Committee, awaiting clearance for floor action

Rodman told the Senate committee yesterday he opposes all federal civil rights measures, not only those requested by the administration but also measures previously introduced by Northern Democrats

Weather Hits Street Repair Work in City

A summer street repair and patching program is well under way in the city Safety Service Director R Guy Bigelow said today

'We are putting down about 20 tons of blacktop each day the weather permits" he said He pointed out this blacktop is being used to repair chuckholes and so forth in city streets brought on by winter's twin destroyers, freeze and thaw

Workmen this week completed repairs on Forest Lawn Blvd and Mt Vernon Ave and Monday will begin work on repair of streets in the western section of town

He said that as soon as the holes and cracks in the streets all are repaired and patched that it is "our hope to surface treat a number of streets, including some which we now are patching"

But he said the surface treating program cannot be readied until such time as it is known how much money will be available for this purpose He said that determination of how much money is to be spent for surface treating must be made by City Council 'and so far they haven't made a move to tell me how much I can spend on this program"

Prices Decline On Ohio Hogs

COLUMBUS Ohio (AP) — Price trend for butcher hogs was slightly lower this week with a $17 81 per hundred pound average, the state bureau of markets reported today Last week's average was $18 per hundred pounds

Sow prices also were slightly lower Top prices of $14 50 to $15 per hundred pounds were paid at most markets Variance in sow prices was also evident this week with some areas having a top price of only $14 to $14 25

Prices paid Monday and Tuesday ranged from $17 50 to $17 75 down 25 cents from the close on Friday, May 25

The bureau said most market interests were of the opinion that higher prices and lighter receipts can be expected for another four to six weeks

Molotov

Klementi Y Voroshilov as titular president of the country in the post of chairman of the Presidium of the Supreme Soviet

It was utterly impossible to predict, in this seething time of the desanctification of Stalin, whether there would or would not soon be another announcement about Molotov

Shepilov recently was named an alternate member of the powerful presidium of the Communist Central Committee

His presence on the mission to Belgrade indicated he had a hand in planning the moves to win back Yugoslavia

Shepilov also is credited with setting up the deal for sale of Soviet bloc arms to Egypt

Now 66 Molotov had been a revolutionary 51 years He plotted and worked in lower echelon chores in the perilous days of the Tsar, living sometimes in exile and almost always in danger He paved the way in Moscow for the return of Lenin and the 1917 Bolshevik revolution

Authorities at Ft Leonard Wood declined comment The train operated by the Frisco Railroad was reported en route to Texas

Brutal Slaying Shocks Atlanta

Secretary Beaten to Death During Holdup

ATLANTA (AP)—One of the most thorough police investigations in years was under way today into the brutal slaying of a pretty Atlanta secretary during a $2,400 downtown payroll robbery — the fifth unsolved robbery-slaying in Atlanta the past 10 months

Police Lt J L Moseley said all members of the detective, robbery and homicide squads have been assigned to investigate the death of Mrs Inez Johnson 30, at the Ingram Mantel and Tile Co

I've never seen anything like this investigation in my 16 years on the police force" Moseley said.

Mrs Johnson, mother of a 10-year old son died of multiple skull fractures She was found crumpled beside her desk where she had been preparing a $2 400 payroll during the lunch hour Friday

The killer apparently struck within a 10 minute period, police said Officials of the company left for an appointment at noon Ten minutes later Herbert Harcourt, 26, an employe of a steel firm, arrived to pick up a load of material and discovered the body.

Tito

new Soviet leaders On the platform to greet him was Dmitri Shepilov, the new Soviet foreign minister and a friend of Tito. Shepilov's appointment to succeed V M Molotov was announced Friday night

The shift was widely regarded as an effort to placate Tito, who has little love for Molotov The latter was in the welcoming party today

Prime Minister Nikolai Bulganin and Communist party boss Nikita S Khrushchev were out in front as Tito stepped from his special train in the gaily decorated station Bulganin and Khrushchev made a trip to Belgrade last year to patch up the split with Tito

News that Shepilov, who had been editor of the Communist party newspaper Pravda since December 1952, was succeeding Molotov won a favorable reaction in Belgrade Tito's ouster from the Cominform in 1948 was signed by Molotov and Stalin

Over the platform was a giant banner reading 'welcome" in Russian and Serbian as Tito stepped off the train A crowd of children rushed forward and pelted Tito with flowers The crowd in the station wildly cheered their leaders

Lemon's Win Streak Stopped at Six by Nationals

Ragged Support in Infield Costs Indians 5-3 Decision

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Cleveland Indians lost their fourth straight game last night, and almost fell another notch in the American League standings.

The Washington Nationals snapped Bob Lemon's six-game winning streak, 5-3, and left the Indians in third place only one percentage point ahead of the Boston Red Sox, who beat Kansas City 5-0.

Luckily for the Indians they didn't fall farther behind the leaders, as the New York Yankees and Chicago White Sox also lost.

First Since Opener

Lemon, whose last previous loss was to Chicago on opening day, gave up 11 hits before he retired in favor of Ray Narleski in the eighth inning. But the veteran righthander was the victim of poor infield support, mostly by Rudy Regalado, subbing at third base for the injured Al Rosen.

Five of the Nats' hits were singles past Regalado, and he fumbled a grounder that cost a run.

The Indians got off to a 2-0 lead. Al Smith and Vic Wertz singled in the first inning, and Smith scored on a double play ball hit by Regalado. Lemon hit his first homer of the season in the third.

The Nats tied it up in the fifth on a double by Lyle Luttrell, a triple by Lou Berberet and a single by Eddie Yost.

Regalado Boots Ball

Then in the sixth, after Roy Sievers singled, Regalado fumbled Jim Lemon's double-play grounder. Sievers went to third on a long fly, and scored on an infield out.

A walk, a sacrifice and Jim Lemon's single put the Nats ahead 4-2 in the seventh inning. A single by Berberet and a double by Yost scored another run in the eighth and drove Bob Lemon to the showers.

Bob Wiesler, a 25-year-old southpaw obtained by the Nats from New York, weakened in the ninth, but the Indians could get only one run.

Herb Score is scheduled to pitch for the Indians tonight. Early Wynn was out three days this week with a cold, but is scheduled to pitch one game of Sunday's doubleheader. Score's opponent will be another lefthander, Dean Stone.

Three Triples Give Columbus Jets 5-2 Clash

By The Associated Press

Give the Columbus Jets and the Miami Marlins the long ball hitting they got last night and they'll go places in the International League.

The Marlins used four home runs, one by winning pitcher Don Cardwell, to defeat the Havana Sugar Kings 7-2. And the Jets came through with three triples, which played a major role in their 5-2 decision over the Richmond Virginians.

But neither of the winners gained on the front running Montreal Royals, who cashed in on two unearned runs for a 4-1 victory over the Toronto Maple Leafs. Buffalo and Rochester found it too cold to play at Rochester.

Caldwell's smash, which came with Bob Micelotta on base in the sixth inning, travelled more than 400 feet and was said to be one of the longest blows in the history of the Cubans' stadium. Micelotta, Bob Boman and Glen Gorbous had preceded Cardwell's homer with circuit blows.

The Jets jumped off to a two-run lead in the first with Johnny Lipon getting a three bagger. Ben Downs scored in the third after his triple and another triple by Jerry Schypinski led to a third run in the seventh.

Jim Piersall Leads Boston In 5-0 Victory

BOSTON (AP) —"Never mind the catch, how about those hits!"

That's the motto of Jimmy Piersall, Boston's whipped-quick centerfielder whose spectacular defensive plays are his trademark.

Jim's right, too. He's become as tough on opponents at the plate as he always was afield.

Yet it was a classic theft of Jim Finigan's long drive in the ninth inning that sent the customers goggle-eyed from Fenway Park Friday night after the Sox' 5-0 victory over Kansas City.

Prior to that Piersall had set up one run, scored a second and driven in a third with two singles and a triple to back Tommy Brewer's five-hitter — his seventh triumph of the season against a single loss.

The batting feats were forgotten when Jim raced 40 yards from deep center, angled in parallel to the wall in left center, timed a fantastic jump perfectly, stabbed Finigan's inning - opening blast back-handed and somersaulted over clutching the ball when he landed.

"I don't think it was my best catch — but then I'm a poor judge of that," Piersall said. "It was a lucky catch," Jim shrugged. "I don't think I had a chance for the ball and just happened to grab it.

"I was out there in center congratulating myself for my triple when Finigan hit the ball."

Piersall tripled to the 420-foot mark in right center in the eighth inning to score Jackie Jensen from first. In the second inning Jim beat out a bunt toward third to put Jensen in scoring position for Sammy White's single. Jim scored on Don Buddin's sacrifice fly.

Piersall, who conquered mental illness earlier in his baseball career, is off to the fastest batting clip in his major league career.

A notoriously slow starter and fast finisher, Piersall has a respectable .295 average. The nervous hustle-guy from Waterbury, Conn., doesn't lead the Sox in any one department but is near the top in almost all of them.

Piersall rates as his best his running grab off Fred Hatfield at Detroit last year because it prevented what would have been the winning run.

Yesterday's Stars

By The Associated Press

Pitching: Tom Brewer, Red Sox — beat the A's 5-0 with a five-hitter, striking out five for his seventh victory in eight decisions and fifth complete game.

Hitting: Bob Nieman, Orioles—had two singles in four trips to drive in all three runs in a 3 - 2 decision over the White Sox.

Reds Blow Chances of Moving Up

CINCINNATI (AP)—The Cincinnati Redlegs were just too generous for their own good last night.

With both Milwaukee and St. Louis losing, they had a chance to move up in the National League. But the Reds took a 3-2 beating from the New York Giants as a result of their own error, walks and failure to hit with men on bases.

It was a wild ball game that took 3 hours and 29 minutes to play.

Two Redlegs and two Giants were banished from the game by Umpire Larry Goetz in late-inning disputes. The Reds were Johnny Temple and Jim Greengrass and the Giants were Wes Westrum and Manager Bill Rigney.

Home runs by Smokey Burgess of the Reds and Ray Katt of the Giants accounted for the first two runs

Johnny Temple's error on a ground ball with the bases full and two out in the sixth gave the Giants the two runs they needed to win.

Nuxhall was the losing pitcher, dropping his fifth verdict against a single win. Steve Ridzik was credited with his second win. He has no losses

The two teams will be at it again this afternoon with Brooks Lawrence of the Reds shooting for his seventh straight pitching victory against Reuben Gomez.

Ryff Discusses Quitting After Boardman KO

NEW YORK (AP)—Larry Boardman, 20-year-old Marlborough, Conn., lightweight, may be in line for a September title shot at champion Wallace (Bud) Smith as a reward for his knockout over Frankie Ryff.

Sam Silverman, Boston promoter, said he could present a deal by which Smith would be guaranteed $50,000 to fight Boardman for the title in Boston, Sept. 10, after the New England youngster knocked out Ryff Friday night in 46 seconds of the ninth round at Madison Square Garden.

Silverman's deal is a complicated maneuver involving Ted Hilston, a resort owner from Modus, Conn It remains to be seen whether Smith will be interested. The champ has an over-the-weight match at Milan, Italy, June 23 with Duilio Loi of Italy, the No. 1 contender.

Tony Petronella, foreign coordinator of the National Boxing Assn, said Friday night in Providence he thought Boardman should box Loi for the right to fight Smith.

Whether or not the curly haired blond lad gets his title shot, he owns the championship of Mr. Ryff who claimed he never before had been knocked off his feet A left-right combination to the chin dropped Ryff on his face He tried to get up at seven, crumpled and fell on his back The corner crew dragged a stool to mid-ring before helping him to his corner

After the fight, Dr. Ira McCown of the New York State Athletic Commission ordered Ryff to go to St. Clare's Hospital for "observation." The fighter talked to newsmen and chatted with friends before he left the Garden. In his dressing room he was talking about retiring from the fight game.

Friend Grabs Ninth, Long Homers in Win by Pirates

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Staff Writer

Maybe it's time to change signals on Pittsburgh's preposterous Pirates — they're beginning to look like they may be for real.

The Pirates in second place, a half-game out of the National League lead on June 2? Maybe they've got the pitching, and maybe they're stronger at short and first with an improved Dick Groat and Dale Long. But where's the outfield power? They're too young.

That's the way it was this spring. One or two experts thought the Bucs might get out of the cellar. That was in fact, all new Manager Bobby Bragan would guarantee.

So here it is June 2. And there they are, in second place—a half-game behind Milwaukee and only four games back of the Braves in the "lost" column.

Defeat Spahn

They got up there Friday night, smacking Warren Spahn and the Braves 4-1. A three-run homer by Lee Walls, the rookie who has shown the power the club needed in the outfield, and a solo smash by Long got the job done in the eighth inning Bob Friend won his ninth before being removed for a pinch-runner in the big eighth.

The Pirates moved up as the St. Louis Cardinals were tumbled to third by the Philadelphia Phillies 5-2. Cincinnati was held in fourth by the New York Giants 3-2. Brooklyn lost to the Chicago Cubs 4-2 in 15 innings.

In the American, first place New York was beaten 6-3 by Detroit, with righthander Frank Lary taking his fourth straight from the Yankees. Chicago, Cleveland and Boston wound up in a virtual three-way tie for second — 6½ games back. Baltimore beat Chicago 3-2; Washington clipped Cleveland 5-3, and Boston defeated Kansas City 5-0.

A triple by Stan Lopata and an infield hit by Del Ennis scored the third inning Phillie run that beat the Cardinals and Tom Poholsky. Curt Simmons, with relief help, won his second, both against St. Louis.

Whitey Lockman caught Roy McMillan's bases-loaded outfield fly, and his peg to the plate nailed pinch-runner Jim Dyck to end a ninth-inning Cincinnati rally a run short. The Giants won it with two runs that scored on Johnny Temple's sixth-inning error.

Baker, Banks Homer

Gene Baker's two-run homer off reliefer Ed Roebuck won for the Cubs. Ernie Banks got the Cubs started with a two-run belt in the seventh, but Duke Snider tied it with a two-run shot in the eighth. Sam Jones won it in relief.

A pair of former teammates beat the White Sox for the Orioles. Righthander Connie Johnson held them hitless six frames and finished with a five-hitter while Bob Nieman drove in all three runs.

Ex-Yankee Bob Wiesler went all the way for the first time in the majors to beat the Indians and Bob Lemon, who had won six straight.

Tom Brewer spun a five-hitter for his second shutout and seventh victory for the Red Sox. Boston centerfielder Jim Piersall made a tremendous catch, snarling Jim Finigan's drive with a 40-yard spring and high leap against the wall.

Kentucky Five Clipped 78-73 In Inaugural

HUNTINGTON, W. Va. (AP) — A Kentucky team of graduated high school basketball stars tonight will be out to avenge a 78-73 defeat last night by a West Virginia-Ohio squad.

It is uncertain whether the Bluegrass state's greatest high school scorer in history, Kelly Coleman of Wayland, will show up for the game. There was no explanation why he failed to appear for last night's contest at Ashland, Ky.

Coleman had practiced with the team the day before. Without Coleman, the Kentucky team was paced by Don Mills of Berea with 19 points.

The Mountaineer-Buckeye combination was led by two of West Virginia's high scorers, Jerry West of East Bank with 21 points and Hank Josefczyk of Yorkville, Ohio, Willie Akers of Mullens with 18. had 5 and John Milhoan of Gallipolis, 4.

The addition of Buckeye players to the Mountaineer team opened the way for a West Virginia-Ohio series, beginning next year.

Hillsboro Ace Nails 8th Title In Trapshoot

FINDLAY, Ohio (AP)—Joe Hiestand of Hillsboro has won the singles championship of the Ohio Trapshooting Assn. tournament for the eighth time.

Hiestand Friday broke 199 of 200 birds to win in singles after dropping the class AA championship in a shoot-off with Fred D. Waldock Jr. of Sandusky.

Waldock broke 25 straight birds while Hiestand dropped one and broke 24 targets. Both men broke 200 straight birds for a perfect score on Thursday.

Waldock also captured class AA honors in Friday's shoot with 197 of 200.

Today's action featured a preliminary handicap and doubles championship events. The tournament ends Sunday.

GAMES POSTPONED

Wet grounds and cold weather forced postponement of Colt and Little League games tonight at Lincoln Park. The games, originally slated for Thursday night were cancelled last night and have been set for next Friday night.

Midgets To Clash Here Wednesday

A midget match and a battle for the tri-state Gold belt will feature next Wednesday night's wrestling card at the armory, promoter Les Fishbaugh said today.

The bouts include a double main event. Brown Panther goes against Tito Infanti, son of a Mexican bull fighter, in the midget match. Billy Fox attempts to wrest the belt from Black Panther in the other portion of the main event.

Dutch Schultz and Maurice Roberre, French Canadian making a return appearance here, clash in the opening match at 8:30 p.m. Jim Scavio, wel lknown referee, will handle the matches according to Fishbaugh.

Depot Workers Present Baseball for Boys Gift

The Marion Baseball for Boys Commission Friday was presented a check for $400, a gift from the employes of the Marion Engineer Depot.

The check was the proceeds from a drive sponsored by the supervisors at the Depot through the various Depot departments.

The check was presented by Col. J. Arthur Hamilton, Depot commander, to Charles Morbitt, commission president, and Tom W. Clark, chairman of the capital improvements fund raising committee of the commission.

Basilio Requests Delay In Bout at Troy Arena

TROY, Ohio (AP)—A 10-round bout scheduled for June 7 between Carmen Basilio and Felix Machado has been postponed to June 16.

Matchmaker Jack Laken said Friday the Hobart Arena fight will be delayed at the request of Basilio.

"Basilio and his handlers found out that Machado is a pretty good boy and they asked an extra week for Basilio to get in tip-top shape," Laken said.

Gophers Sink Ohio U. In NCAA District Play

ATHENS, Ohio (AP)—Minnesota, Big Ten baseball champions, needs only one victory here today in a scheduled doubleheader against Ohio University to qualify for the collegiate world series at Omaha June 9.

The Gophers, behind ace pitcher Gerald Thomas, blanked Ohio U. 5-0 Friday to draw first blood in a best-of-three series in the NCAA district 4 playoffs.

Horses Finish Lebanon Race In Dead Heat

LEBANON, Ohio (AP) — Colby Prince and Mr. Medley ran a dead heat in the second race of the Lebanon Raceway's harness race meeting last night to create a twin daily double payoff at the mutuel windows.

Colby Prince was owned and driven by Howard Fuller of Croton Ohio. Dr. Medley, owned by Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Distelhorst of Columbus, was driven by Clyde Miller. They were timed at 2:17 in the Class 2S trot. Colby Prince paid $32.00 $32.80 and $9.20 while Mr. Medley paid $11.00, $11.40 and $8 40.

Paired with Maryli's Boy, the first race winner, Colby Prince provided a $44.60 daily double payoff. Mr. Medley and Maryli's Son paid $45.60.

Mississippi has led the Southeastern Conference in football rushing five times in the last eight seasons.

Delany Wins

Two Post Four-Minute Miles in Compton Action

COMPTON, Calif. (AP)—The still select sub-four-minute mile club admitted two more members today, Ron Delany of Ireland and Gunnar Nielsen of Denmark.

The two made the grade Friday night in the Compton Invitational Track and Field Meet, 21-year-old Ron, a student at Villanova University, qualifying first with a stunning, hard won duel to the tape with Nielsen.

Delany was timed at 3:59.0 and Nielsen at 3:59 1.

No U.S. miler belongs to the club. The two foreigners qualified for membership on the track where America's best bet, Wes Santee, three times tried to break the fearsome four.

Delaney won athlete-of-the-meet honors, overshadowing such co-features as:

The victory of ex-Fordham runner Tom Courtney over Belgium's Roger Moens in the 880-yard race.

The achievement of Ira Murchison of the U.S. Army, who got into the meet as an added starter and proceeded to tie the world record in the 100 meters at 10.2.

Another prodigious put of the shot by the world king, Parry O'Brien, at 60 feet 5¾ inches which went virtually unnoticed because such throws, including his official record of 60-feet-11, are customary for him.

A pole vault of 15 feet ¼ inch by Bob Richards, and another of the same height by Ron Morris of Southern California, his first at such a dizzy altitude.

Today most of the athletes fly to Stockton, Calif., for a meet tonight.

Jim Lea, another Air Force athlete, won the 220-yard dash in 21.0 and the 440-yard in 46.2.

In the 880, Courtney managed to hold off a belated surge by Moens, coholder of the world 800-meter record, and win in 1.49. But it was the mile run that stood out.

Nielsen was running for the first time since February, he made his own pace for a while and had nothing to kick back with when Delany drove up and passed him 70 yards from the finish.

Meeting Slated To Talk Over Fireworks Show

A meeting is scheduled Sunday at 7:30 p.m. at City Hall for a discussion on the possibility of a fireworks display here July 4.

A representative of a leading firework manufacturer will speak at the meeting and a spokesman for a temporary committee arranging the meeting urged all interested citizens to attend. The spokesman asked organizations in the city to send a representative.

Last Night's Fights

New York (Madison Square Garden) — Larry Boardman, 137½, Marlborough, Conn., knocked out Frankie Ryff, 137¼, New York, 9.

Charlotte, N. C. — Nino Valdes, 210, Havana, stpoped Ken Hammer, 195, Detroit, 8.

Middlecoff Is Among Texas Open Leaders

DALLAS (AP) — Youth continued to dominate Dallas' lush golf show today but old campaigner Cary Middlecoff was ready to challenge the boys again, this time for the biggest jackpot — the $14,000 first money in the $70,000 Texas international Open.

Gene Littler of Singing Hills, Calif., at 25 one of the game's top winners, and Bill Casper of Chula Vista, Calif., 24 and making his first try for the big money, tied Middlecoff, the Dallas golfing dentist, for first place in the opening round Friday. Each shot an eagle-marked 6-under-par 64.

They were one stroke to the good over another newcomer to the pro circuit, Bill Bisdorf of San Diego, and veterans Jay Hebert of Sanford, Fla., and Roberto De Vicenzo of Mexico City.

The Texas International is the second part of a $100,000 Dallas golf project. The $30,000 Dallas Centennial Open last week was won by Don January of Abilene, Tex.

The round he shot Friday convinced Cary that he was definitely back on his game. "I started hitting the ball real good at the sixth hole," he said. "This was my best round in a long time."

All three banged eagles on the twelfth hole and each used a 7 iron to drill to the green.

Airman William I. Hough, 20, of Marion is undergoing jet engine mechanic schooling at Amarillo, Tex., Air Force Base following completion of Air Force basic training at Lackland Air Force Base, Tex.

William Hough

In the service since March, Airman Hough attended Mount Zion High School and was employed at the Chad Hero Garage here prior to entering the service.

He is the son of James Lee Hough of 274½ Rose Ave. and Mrs. Helen May Hough of 321 Fairview St.

Cassady, Berg Cited as Top 1955 Athletes

NEW YORK (AP)—Howard Hopalong Cassady, Ohio State's All-America halfback, and Patty Berg, a golf champion for two decades, were honored today as America's "Athletes of the year" for 1955.

Each received the Frederick C. Miller Memorial Trophy, which beginning this year will go annually to the top male and female athletes picked in The Associated Press' year-end poll.

The trophies are put up by the Fraternal Order of Eagles. Presentations were made by Judge Robert C. Cannon of Milwaukee.

Cassady, who plans to play pro football this fall with the Detroit Lions, flew in this morning from Columbus, Ohio. Patty was tied up in a women's tournament at Pittsburgh, leaving her brother, Herman Berg Jr., of St. Paul, Minn., to accept the award for her.

Cassady, a player who came through in the clutches, outscored heavyweight champion Rocky Marciano and Brooklyn pitcher Johnny Podres in the poll of sports writers and broadcasters. He received 53 first place votes to 35 for Marciano and 16 for Podres, the World Series pitching star.

Patty won out over Mrs. Babe Didrikson Zaharias, who is seriously ill with cancer; tennis champion Doris Hart and Mrs. Pat McCormick, the world's diving queen.

All-Season Playbox Grows in Favor

It Can Be Constructed For Children's Use Throughout Year

By VIVIAN BROWN
Associated Press Staff Writer

A sturdy "four-seasons" play box is just the thing for your backyard. Such a box offers many advantages for youngsters. In fall it may hold sand, a delightful way to keep tots out of mischief while Autumn leaves fall. The same crowd of tiny laborers can build a snowman or little igloo in the box come winter. In spring it may hold water and fish to entertain tiny anglers. In summer it can be a sturdy wading pool.

The box may be any size, built either at or below ground level, and constructed of metal lath and concrete. At ground level the drainage problem is eliminated by inserting a drain pipe in the concrete mix at floor level during the construction stage.

Amateurs do not need to build forms to hold the mix in place. An basket-like box of metal lath and tie wire is all that is needed. After that stage a trowel applies concrete to the sides and bottom of the box. Ready-mixed dry concrete available in bags at hardware stores and building supply houses makes the job even simpler. The concrete keys itself to the basket through hundreds of small diamond-shaped openings in the metal lath.

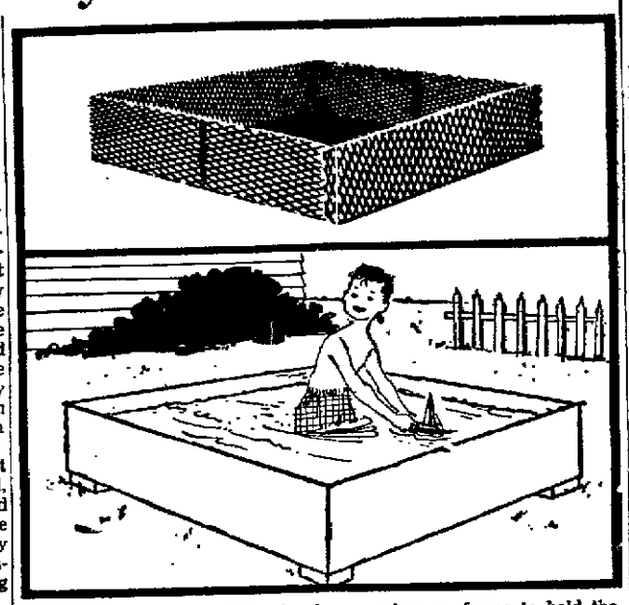
THE LATH IS EASY to work with because it may be bent to shape by hand. It is available in sheets at building supply houses or lumber yards, may be cut easily with tinners' snips. The diamond mesh lath weighing 3 4 pounds per square yard is best for a box of this sort.

Parents may wonder at the advisability of building such a permanent fixture. The children will grow up, they reason, and there they are stuck with a concrete box in the yard.

Other uses for a fixture of this sort however, may be employed by any homeowner. The box may be built up a little more within its form and used as a place to burn trash. It is ideal for a compost pile, something to keep in mind when selecting its location. A border of spring flowers around it and some goldfish within it may add a delightful note to a garden. Then too, it may be used as a special place for prize roses, topped by peat moss it will look very attractive and the drainage pipes will keep the flower bed well drained.



THIS "FOUR-SEASONS" play box requires no forms to hold the concrete mix in place. Metal lath and tie wire are all that is needed. In addition to playtime use, the box also can be used in various ways in the garden.

Atom Heat Lags Behind Other New Home Ideas

By DAVID G. BAREUTHER
AP Real Estate Editor

The need of a new heating plant is causing a lot of pencil chewing in many older homes at this time of the year. The heat is off for the season — the indoor heat, that is — making it a good time to replace your furnace or boiler. But if you hope to make your old plant limp along until we get atomic heat, you may have to shiver or freeze for many years.

Solar heat — a system of storing up the sun's rays — seems to be much nearer in reality. Other new wrinkles already are working out fine. One is the heat pump and another is the use of gas to keep you cool in summer as well as warm in winter.

But as for atomic heat, that's still very much up in the air.

This was the consensus at the recent Chicago technical conference of the National Warm Air Heating and Air Conditioning Contractors Assn. Dr. Finn J. Larsen was concerned about a story that appeared in the papers last year predicting that an atomic home heating plant could be very compact.

"The reactor need not be large," admitted Dr. Larsen, who heads research at Minneapolis-Honeywell. "In fact it could probably be contained in a pressure vessel smaller than a five-gallon can. However, hazardous radiation would be coming right through the container, and heavy sheilding is required.

"To minimize the cost of shielding, concrete, rather than metal, is used. By the time we surround the reactor and the turbine or heat exchanger with many feet of concrete, we require an area probably larger than the entire basement of a home, and by the time we place thick concrete on top of the reactor to shield the occupants of the home above, an ordinary basement is not high enough."

HARNESSING the sun got a more optimistic report from A. L. Hesselschwardt Jr., of Massachusetts Institute of Technology. He reported that MIT is preparing to build a second experimental house to show the possibilities of heating, come clouds or night, by using solar heat.

"The first house," this scientist said, "was built in 1949. During testing it was found that an average of 75 per cent of the seasonal heating load was carried by the solar heating system — the remaining 25 per cent being handled by auxiliary heating. To produce a solar energy system that will be competitive, from an economical standpoint, with a conventional system will require much more research."

THE HEAT PUMP already is on the market and in quite wide use. This works like a refrigerator. In winter the heat that comes out of the back of your refrigerator heats your house. In summer the cold that comes out of the front of the box cools your house.

Dr. Stanley Gilman, research head of the Carrier Corp:, told the assembled engineers that this contrivance provides what might be called a cheap source of electric heating. He said it delivers three times the equivalent amount of heat per kilowatt-hour as an electric resistance heating device.

"As might be expected," he said, "the gas and oil industries view this possibility with alarm."

NOT TO BE left out in the heat. the gas industry told the engineers how they could keep cool more cheaply by using gas in the summertime.

"Four' manufacturers are engaged in producing complete gas engine driven air conditioning units today," said Robert H. Combs of the Oklahoma Natural Gas Co.

Where gas is used for heating, he said, existing pipe and service is almost always adequate for gas air conditioning . . . existing electric service can generally handle the small electric auxillaries required in gas installations . . . many areas have gas rates which offer homeowners substantially lower operating costs for gas summer cooling.

Aid for the Ailing House

By ROGER C. WHITMAN

Q: Our front porch has soft white pine flooring, which opens and closes during the year. We put "water putty crack filler" in last year and it is cracking and falling out. Could you please advise what could be done to stop this?

A: Since wood fibers have an "affinity" for moisture, try sealing as much of it as possible by painting the underside of the floor boards in addition to the paint on the surface. A couple of coats of aluminum paint on the underside should be sufficient. The space under the porch must be well ventilated to keep the wood from swelling because of ground moisture. Painting should be done when the greatest amount of shrinkage has taken place. Try refilling the spaces with wood putty, after painting. I think better results would have been possible if yellow pine flooring was used.

Q: Will you give me an idea how to put a blond finish on an unfinished pine chest? The color I want is similar to the blond oak one sees on modern furniture. Should I bleach the wood first? Would varnish or shellac be the best bet? What would I use to rub it down for a shiny, smooth finish? Should I seal the knots first?

A: Bleach the wood by using one of the prepared wood bleaches sold by paint dealers specializing in wood finishing materials. Use it according to directions on the label. When the wood is dry, smooth it by rubbing with "000" sandpaper; then make the wood smoother by rubbing with "00" steel wool and wipe off all dust with turpentine. Many paint manufacturers make several kinds of modern wood stains. Color cards are available through the dealers. You can finish with a clear shellac. quer or pure, fresh white sellac. Should you decide on shellac, thin half and half with denatured alcohol. The lacquer finish would be preferred, and if possible, apply it with a paint sprayer. Rubbing will not be necessary. Wash the knots with turpentine and steel wool; then apply stain and finish.

Are Monuments to Builders

Antarctic Cold, Wind Withstood by 3 Houses

Three unpainted wood houses in the Antarctic have withstood winds of hurricane velocity and repeated blanketing under snow for half a century — and "look good for another 50 or 100 years."

This is the report of members recently returned from the Operation Deepfreeze expedition to the Antarctic led by Rear Admiral Richard E. Byrd.

The houses stand as historic monuments to two British explorers who built them as headquarters and subsequently lost their lives on polar journeys. All three houses are on Ross Island, which is about 800 miles from the South Pole. The oldest house was built 54 years ago by Captain Robert F. Scott at Hut Point; the next was built by Sir Ernest Shackleton 48 years ago at Cape Royds; and the third 45 years ago by Captain Scott at Cape Evans.

DR. PAUL SIPLE, director of scientific projects of the latest expedition and a veteran of all the Byrd explorations, described the houses as in sound condition.

"We saw both the interior and exterior of the Shackleton hut," he said. "The other two were completely filled with snow. Down there, an opening as small as a keyhole will permit drift snow to fill a room in due time. No immediate effort was made to get the snow out because those huts will be treated as museums and detailed records will be made of the conditions discovered.

"The soft grain of the wood on the windward side of Scott's 1902 hut had been etched out as deep as a quarter of an inch by the blasting effect of snow and rock particles driven against it by the wind. Yet, it would probably take another 50 or 100 years to wear down the wood. The harder grain stood out in an interesting, attractive pattern.

"The hut at Cape Evans, quite fully exposed to the elements, showed few blemishes. In the Shackleton hut, in which snow had entered and then melted out, condensation had taken place and steel cans and other metal in it had corroded. However, there was little other damage."

Captain Scott described Hut Point, the oldest of the three, as "quite a palatial residence." "The main hut," he wrote, "had been brought from Australia and was, in fact, a fairly spacious bungalow of a design used by outlying settlers in their country." Its floor area was 36 feet square, with overhanging eaves of the pyramidal roof resting on supports some four feet beyond the sides. The supports were buried three or four feet in the volcanic rock. The house had a covered veranda, because it had been designed for the warm climate of the "sheep country" of Australia. It had a double layer of wood sheathing.

Explorer Shackleton had similar praise for his own headquarters at Cape Royds. After returning from a 22-day expedition, he wrote, "We were able to appreciate at their full value the warmth and comfort of our little hut."

The Shackleton hut was prefabricated in London. It was 33 by 19 feet. Shackleton wrote: "It was made of stout fir timbering of best quality in walls, roofs and floors, and the parts were mortiсed and tenoned to facilitate erection in the Antarctic. The walls were strengthened with iron cleats fitted to main posts and horizontal timbering, and the roof principals were provided with strong iron tie rods. The hut was lined with match boarding, and the walls and roof were covered externally first with strong roofing felt, then one-inch tongued and grooved boards, and finally with another covering of felt."

The four-inch space in framing between the match-boarding was packed with granulated cork, Shackleton said.

"During our first severe blizzard, the hut shook and trembled so that every moment we expected the whole thing to carry away," he wrote.

THE THIRD HUT at Cape Evans, built by Captain Scott on his second expedition, was described as a "snug, commodious house" by the Captain. It was 50 feet long and 25 feet wide. Its framework was lined with two thicknesses of tongue-and-grooved boards, between which was a layer of dried seaweed, guilted in sackcloth. The outer side was also covered with two thicknesses of boarding with seaweed insulation

Roof and floor also had double boarding with insulation material between.

On Jan. 17, 1911 Scott wrote "We took up our abode in the hut today and are simply overwhelmed with its comfort."

A year and a day later Captain Scott reached the South Pole, only to find that Norwegian Captain Roald Amundsen, using dogs and not stopping for scientific work, had won the race by a month Captain Scott and four companions died of starvation, exhaustion and exposure on the way back to their wood hut, leaving a heroic record of what has been described as "the worst journey in the world."

Explorer Shackleton also died on a subsequent journey.

The wood huts they built stand today as three of the most unusual museums in the world.

TO CALL CREW. The Dominican Republic has offered to produce the crew of a freighter named in the alleged murder of Dr. Jesus de Galindez (above), who, according to sources hostile to Generalissimo Rafael Trujillo, had been thrust alive into the boiler of the Dominican ship. Galindez, a University of Columbia professor, disappeared March 12.

Molders Strike Mt. Vernon Plant

MOUNT VERNON, Ohio (AP)—The first serious labor dispute in 40 years at the Cooper-Bessemer Corp. plant here has idled 1,100 production workers.

Production was halted Friday when 350 molders and foundry workers went on strike after refusing to accept a contract approved by machinists at the plant.

The strike did not affect clerical or maintenance workers. Machinists, pattern workers and teamsters respected the molders' picket lines.

The corporation's Grove City, Pa., plant is not affected by the strike, a spokesman said.

Orian Williams of Columbus, district representative of the molders, said, "We are prepared to a long strike." He added that the union will have pickets on duty around-the-clock at the company's entrances.

The company said the union rejected its proposal to increase all hourly rates 5½ per cent now and put into effect an additional six cents across-the-board raise June 1, 1957.

The union contends the strike involves pay raises and fringe benefits, but declined to discuss its wage and fringe benefit demands.

Molders and foundry workers now get pay ranging from $1.68 to $2.15 an hour.

Here's How:

Attractive Bird Cages Enhance Home's Decor

Strictly for the birds are some charming little homes. Feathered friends may perch happily in the choicest dwelling, and it may even enhance your decor.

At last beak count, the parakeet population was still on the increase with a survey revealing that one out of every five families owns one of the pets, and that some 14 million parakeets enjoy cozy retreats in America. (Canaries are staging a comeback, too.)

Cages are large these days — no more cramped quarters for Bo Bo or Dickey bird. Even variety stores sell colorful king size cages that give a bird room to flap his wings. One New York decorator, Frances Lee, designed a cage for her home. It covers the wall area between two windows, a space of about five by seven feet. She feels that cages are more interesting mounted on a wall where they might even be used as a planter, offering the birds a more natural setting.

If your decor is French, you may find decorative faience cages that will harmonize handsomely with your furnishings. Modernists will enjoy the large metal cages with whirligig design. One Long Island woman used parakeet colors in redoing several rooms for a charming effect.

One parakeet admirer totes her bird on business trips, carrying him in a transparent plastic handbag especially made for the purpose. A boat trip, however made her pet sea sick.

Parakeets do not like loud noises, either, so it is best to put the cage where the bird will not be frightened.

When choosing the cage do not select it merely for appearance. The bird will enjoy climbing so his home should have horizontal wires that will give him a good grip. He should be able to reach food and water easily too. And there should be enough room in the cage for parakeet play things — a hanging bell, a mirror (they love to preen), a marble or a small ball.

Make the cage an interesting aspect of your decor.

Merger of Banks Granted Approval

Merger of the National City Bank of Marion and the Caledonia Banking Co. is effective today, according to an announcement by Paul Bachman, vice president of the Marion bank.

A telegram approving the merger and setting the effective date for June 2 was received Friday afternoon from the federal comptroller of the currency in Washington, Mr. Bachman said.

The merger of the two banks was formally approved by the shareholders of both institutions in meetings held Tuesday afternoon.

In addition to its main office at Main and Center Sts. in Marion, National City Bank now has five branches, including the new Caledonia branch.

Total assets of the bank with the addition of some two-million dollars from the Caledonia Banking Co. is now about $30-million.

Builders Sue Turnpike

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Two contractors, Terry and Wright, Inc., Louisville, Ky., and Calumet Paving Co., Zionville, Ind., have filed suit in Franklin County Common Pleas court asking $870,342 29 from the Ohio Turnpike Commission.

The contractors charged Friday that the commission held up money due them unless the firms signed full releases.

New Building Firm's Initial Homes Shown

R. O., Inc., Project Started in Richland Terrace Subdivision

Last December Robert O Connell and Kenneth Roberts, longtime Marionites, after much consideration and deliberation, joined forces to form the R O Inc, building business They purchased 15 acres in Marion's Richland Terrace subdivision had it surveyed and marked off into 30 building sites each comprising slightly over one-half acre and, as spring came about began constructing the first two new houses in the sub-division

Sunday, at open house from 2 to 7 p m, and again Monday and Tuesday evenings from 5 30 to 8 p m, Marionites and other interested persons will have an opportunity to see the finished products of this new corporation s first endeavors

The two houses face each other in the northwestern most corner of the area and except for minor differences (one is somewhat larger) are virtually alike, both in construction and conveniences within

Split-level Type

Both are frame construction, split level type dwellings, featuring a full basement, ground floor rooms and an upstairs One house is painted blue, the other green

Both homes have two - car garages a laundry space, and a half bath on the ground level The garage features roll up overhead doors a cement floor and plasterboard outside walls A graveled driveway gives access to the street

The full basement includes a fuel oil furnace 50 gallon electric hot water heater and space especially allotted for recreation The furnace is the type made to accommodate an air conditioner at any future time

The upstairs rooms of both houses have plastered walls, with mahogany woodwork in one, birch in the other Floors are all hard wood The kitchens feature built-in facilities, including a refrigerator, range and dishwasher Inlaid linoleum covers the kitchen floor and a hard-finish surface complements the cupboard tops During open house Sunday the kitchen facilities will be demonstrated.

Living Room Fireplaces

The living area includes both living and dining rooms, with wood-burning fireplaces in each living room and a thermopane picture window, with opening side windows

Upstairs are three bedrooms and a full bath the latter featuring a sink - vanity combination Closet space is provided in each room and hardwood floors are laid throughout Only six steps are required to gain access to the upstairs level

A graveled road dividing the two properties is expected to be replaced with a finished street, possibly in early July.

THIS IS THE LARGER of the two houses being readied for Sunday's open house in Marion's Richland Terrace sub-division It is frame construction, painted green and features a two car garage, full basement, and three bedrooms Both places are on lots comprising approximately one half acre of ground Landscaping of the yards is presently underway The two houses are of the split level type This future home is in the $26,000 price range, while the other one will sell for $23 000

Contact Cement

Tips on Home Repairs

By ANDREW C LANG
Associated Press Staff Writer

DO . . . remember that, while contact cement is generally used for attaching laminated plastic to plywood, it is excellent for many other types of bonding

DO . . use contact cement for projects where the use of clamps is impractical

DO . . apply the cement with a notched spreader on large flat surfaces and with a brush on small irregular surfaces

DO . . put the cement on both surfaces to be bonded and allow to dry from 30 minutes to one hour

DO . . . be certain that extra care is taken in positioning the bonded materials, because they cannot be moved once the 2 cemented pieces have been brought together

DON'T . . . guess whether the cement is dry before the bonding, touching it with your finger or a piece of clean paper will determine whether it is completely dry

DON'T allow air bubbles to form between cemented pieces of large flat materials run a rolling pin over the top immediately after bonding

DON'T . . overlook this possible trick for a precision result in certain projects — cut the stock slightly oversize before bonding then cut to the exact size after bonding

DON'T . expect contact cement to solve all your fastening problems there are times when other adhesives are preferable, and there are projects which can not be done properly without the use of clamps

YOUR HOME . . . Today and Tomorrow

By DOUGLAS TUOMEY

There are so many fine points to painting that some of the most important of them are overlooked by the amateur in his haste to cover a lot of surface As a result, many jobs on which a lot of money and effort have been expended look anything but professional when they are finished

There is little doubt about the fact that one of the really important things to accomplish when painting is to paint to a line and not have wavy edges, overlapping from trim to wall or any of the other defects which show that more will than skill was used

It is true that it takes time and patience, as well as a steady hand to strike a line but the difference between a window sash which has been hurriedly struck off and has wavy high water marks of paint showing a quarter inch out on the glass and one which has been carefully lines, is painfully obvious

Most of the trouble encountered in striking a true and even line comes from improper loading of the brush A brush should be dipped about one third of the length of the bristles and then slapped against the inside of the paint can It should be be wiped off over the rim of the can as most people do as this leaves a too dry brush A brush should be held so that the paint flows toward the end of the bristles as shown by the illustration This means that the brush is being fed as the paint is taken off by the dry surface being worked upon If the brush is held so that the normal flow of the paint is toward the handle, it is almost impossible to get a good heavy line When painting along a horizontal line the brush should be held horizontally and frequently reversed so that the two sides are brought alternately against the surface

Three Fined on Liquor Charges in Upper Court

UPPER SANDUSKY — Upper Sandusky Mayor J Craig Bowman held a hearing Thursday for three men arrested last Saturday night in a raid on the Moose Lodge clubrooms here

Robert Robey and James Parsell of Upper Sandusky and Dallas Scott of Nevada presented no defense to a charge of selling beer and whiskey without a legal permit The mayor found the men guilty, suspended a 3 day jail sentence and fined them $100 and costs each

Mr Scott the club secretary entered a plea of not guilty to a charge of keeping a place where intoxicating liquors were sold in violation of the law The defendant was found not guilty of the charge since in the opinion of the mayor it was difficult to determine whether Mr Scott was in actual charge of the premises

NAACP May Not Operate, Court Decides

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP)—The National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People says it plans to abide by a state court order restraining it from operating in Alabama.

Circuit Judge Walter B. Jones issued a temporary injunction against the NAACP Friday and said it would remain in effect until further notice.

Jones issued the injunction at the request of Atty. Gen. John Patterson, who charged the NAACP with helping to organize and support the Negro boycott of the Montgomery City Lines Buses.

In Birmingham, Mrs. Ruby Hurley, regional secretary of the NAACP, said that "inasmuch as we are law-abiding citizens we will abide by the injunction handed down by Judge Jones."

In New York, Executive Secretary Roy Wilkins of the NAACP said that the organization's lawyers were awaiting additional information on the injunction.

Wilkins also said that the NAACP "did not organize the Montgomery bus protest, but we joined the rest of the country in hailing the people who did."

Assault Charges Filed Against Bucyrus Man

BUCYRUS — Ralph E. Likens, 31, of Bucyrus is being held in the Crawford County jail here on a charge of criminal assault on a 13-year-old girl. The charge was filed by the girl's mother.

The warrant for Likens' arrest was issued by Frederick H. Baerkircher, Bucyrus justice of the peace, and Likens will be arraigned before him at a later date.

Likens was arrested Thursday night at the home of a brother near Crestline. The attack allegedly took place last weekend.

Roof of Garage Falls On Four Automobiles

CLEVELAND (AP)—A 50-by-50 foot section of the roof of a single story brick and masonry garage collapsed Friday when dirt was piled on it with a power shovel faster than six men with wheelbarrows could distribute it.

Two wheelbarrow men were injured slightly and four automobiles in the garage were badly damaged. Total damage was estimated at $50,000.

Topsoil was being piled on the garage roof to landscape a terrace at a new apartment house in suburban Shaker Heights.

Injured in the collapse were Murdock Davis, 40, and Amos Beverly, 36. They were treated for bruises at St. Luke's Hospital and released.

Telegraph Men Walk Out To Attend Meeting

CLEVELAND (AP)—A heavy backlog of messages piled up in Western Union Telegraph Co. offices here Friday when about 460 employes left their jobs to attend an "emergency meeting."

The workers returned after the three-and-a-half-hour session which was called when negotiators of the company and the Commercial Telegraphers Union in Washington failed to agree on a new contract for the one which expired Thursday midnight. The talks will be resumed Monday.

Foreman's Club Will Elect 7 Members to Board of Control

Annual election of members of the board of control and a talk on the role of natural gas in industry will be featured at a meeting of the Marion Foreman's Club at Hotel Harding at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday.

The talk will be presented by Miss Jane Magruder of the information department of the Ohio Fuel Gas Co. of Columbus.

Wearing an outfit of fabrics and plastics made of natural gas derivatives, Miss Magruder will describe how industry uses natural gas for some 25,000 different processes, as a fuel, as a precision heating tool and as a raw material.

In addition she will describe the drama behind Ohio Fuel's vast system of supply which meets natural gas needs in more than 600,000 Ohio homes, factories and business places.

A native of Owensboro, Ky., Miss Magruder is a graduate of Furman University, Greenville, S.C., received her masters degree from the University of Wisconsin and has taken post graduate work at Ohio State University.

The election will be to select seven members of the board of control to serve for two-year terms. A list of nominees picked by a nominations committee will be presented to the membership and other nominations may be made at the meeting. Those selected by the committee are: Harold Young, Larry Weiser, A. W. Thompson, Dan Sherer, W. W. Shawhun, George Schwab, Paul McCleary, John Marshall, Emil Lisak, Ivor Huntsman, John Dugan, Lynn Coulter, John Boyd and Tom Andrews.

Circus Tent Falls To Big Wind After Audience Leaves

FITCHBURG, Mass. (AP)—A sudden wind and rain storm Friday toppled a circus menagerie show tent moments after 2,500 persons had filed from the big top.

Four persons, two of them children, were hospitalized for shock and injuries apparently inflicted by wind-whipped boards attached to the tent canvas. Eight other persons reported minor injuries.

Police credited the circus owners, Cristiani Brothers, with averting a panic. Warned of the approaching storm the show in the main tent was shortened by 15 minutes.

Had the tent blown down 10 minutes earlier, fire Lt. Norman F. De Lisle said, it "would have been a catastrophe."

Animals housed in cages inside the tent—including lions, tigers, elephants, monkeys and a giraffe—were unharmed as the wind whipped the tent away. None of the animals escaped.

Top Farming Student Prefers Engineering

MEDINA, Ohio (AP)—Owen Blakeslee, 17, who scored the highest grade among Ohio high school seniors taking an agriculture scholarship test, said today he is going to become an engineer instead of a farmer.

He turned down the scholarship to Ohio State University's agricultural school. He will enter Case Institute of Technology in Cleveland next September for an engineering science education leading to research.

His grade was tops among the 896 seniors taking the test throughout the state.

He said previously that he likes farming and loved nature but was fearful of taking up farming as a career because of what he called the economic plight of the farmer.

James Conway Named Trainmaster at Buffalo

James W. Conway, trainmaster for the Erie Railroad at Jersey City, has been appointed trainmaster for the Buffalo and Rochester divisions with headquarters in Buffalo, effective today. He succeeds W. F. Wilson, promoted to assistant superintendent at Youngstown.

Mr. Conway, a native of Marion, started with the Erie in 1928 as a clerk in the master mechanic's office there. He held secretarial positions in Meadville and Cleveland until 1942 when he was furloughed for military service.

Following his return to the Erie, he was appointed inspector of operation at Cleveland in 1946. He was promoted to trainmaster in Jersey City later that year.

Crawford Lawsuit Asks for $50,000

BUCYRUS — Frank Schaub of Shelby is plaintiff in a $50,000 action for money filed in Crawford County Common Pleas Court against Mrs. Jane C. B. Smith of Columbus.

Schaub claims he was injured permanently on Feb. 3, north of Crestline, on State Route 61 when his car collided with one driven by Mrs. Smith. He charges her with driving in the wrong traffic lane.

According to his petition, Schaub incurred head, skull, spine, neck, arm, shoulder and leg injuries and also suffered from shock.

Rubber Workers Plan Negotiations With 4 Big Firms

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—The United Rubber Workers Union announced today its schedule of wage negotiating conferences with the "big four" of the industry.

Talks with Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co. will begin in Dayton, Ohio, on July 2. On the same date in New York, negotiations will begin with U.S. Rubber Co.

The next day in Columbus, Ohio, talks will begin with Firestone Tire & Rubber Co.

As previously announced, June 26 will be the date for opening discussions with B. F. Goodrich Co. in Cincinnati.

The union's policy committee has asked for "substantial" wage increases, but has not named a specific figure. The negotiations are based on wage re-opening clauses. Other sections of the bargaining contract are not affected.

Driver Fined Twice

GALION — Two fines were assessed Perry Price, 19, of Galion, in a hearing Thursday afternoon before Mayor Francis C. Schalip. Price was arrested by the State Highway Patrol, Thursday, south of Crestline on Rt. 61. He was fined $20 and costs on a speeding charge, and $25 and costs for operating a motor vehicle without an operator's license.

Radio 'Hams' Hear Russia

Reds Sending Again After Long Silence

DETROIT (AP) — Detroit "hams" (amateur short wave radio operators) report a flood of conversation from Russian counterparts in recent weeks, after a long, long silence.

Mickey Unger, 30, of suburban Huntington Woods, said that when Premier Bulganin and Communist Party Secretary Khrushchev visited England about a month ago messages began to come from Russian hams.

Within the last two nights, Unger said he had picked up and talked freely with hams in Leningrand and Moscow and in Latvia and Siberia.

Those he talked to Friday night, Unger said, directed that confirmation cards of contact be sent direct to Moscow.

When It's.
PAINT-UP TIME
On Your Farm
Here's something to keep in mind there's nothing you can buy that will brighten up any exterior surface like
New One-Coat
UNICO 251
White House Paint
That's a fact you'll appreciate when you see the gleaming good looks of your farm buildings after a quick job with UNICO 251. Here's a completely lead-free exterior paint that covers a good repaint surface in one-coat beauty with no trouble at all.
It's a versatile paint that goes on in a breeze and levels easily, making it a snap to do your painting in record time.
UNICO 251 is a fume-proof and mildew-resistant paint with outstanding toughness and strength . . . wears like iron, saves money on repainting.
When you need a really superior outside white, add up these value features and get your supply of one-coat UNICO 251.

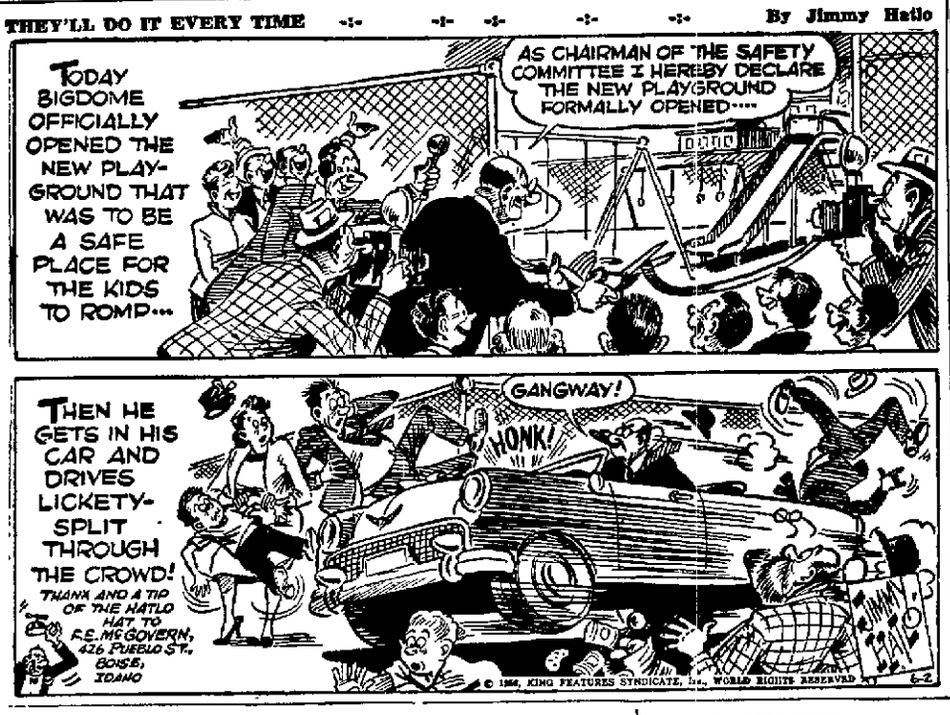
REX MORGAN, M.D. By Dal Curtis

STEVE CANYON By Milton Caniff

LOOK, THUMBS, I'M SORRY TO SEE YOU SO DISTRESSED... WHY DON'T YOU TELL OLD UNCLE STEVE ALL ABOUT IT?
IT'S THE WORST SORT OF SOAP OPERA DEAL, STEVE.. GENERAL TOWN IS ALL THE NICE GUYS I EVER MET!
NATURALLY HE IS MARRIED... OF COURSE HE HAS SWELL KIDS! —WHO ELSE WOULD I FALL IN LOVE WITH?
MAYBE THE HEAD SHRINKERS WOULD SAY I GO FOR MEN WHO AREN'T FREE— SO I CAN COVER UP THE FACT THAT THEY WOULDN'T LIKE ME IF THEY WERE FOOTLOOSE...
CAR 26, THIS IS THE TOWER. THERE IS A CAR PARKED SOUTH OF GATE M, EVEN SABOTAGE CAN LOOK LIKE LOVE! CHECK IT! ...OVER
THIS IS 26. ROGER! OUT

THEY'LL DO IT EVERY TIME By Jimmy Hatlo



TODAY BIGDOME OFFICIALLY OPENED THE NEW PLAY-GROUND THAT WAS TO BE A SAFE PLACE FOR THE KIDS TO ROMP...
AS CHAIRMAN OF THE SAFETY COMMITTEE I HEREBY DECLARE THE NEW PLAYGROUND FORMALLY OPENED.....
THEN HE GETS IN HIS CAR AND DRIVES LICKETY-SPLIT THROUGH THE CROWD!
GANGWAY!
HONK!

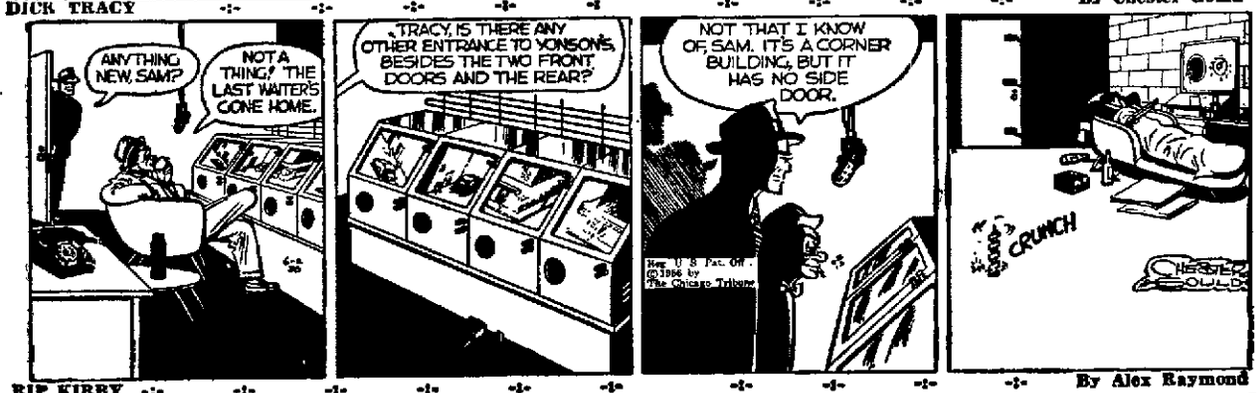
THE HEART OF JULIET JONES By Stan Drake

BUT IF THIS LARRY HONE DIDN'T DATE YOU—WHAT'S ALL THE PREPARATION FOR?
I SAID HE TRIED TO DATE ME— BUT I TURNED HIM DOWN COLD!
WELL??
THAT DOESN'T MEAN HE WON'T COME BY, OF COURSE. HONEST, JULIE—YOU JUST DON'T DIG MEN, DO YOU?
I-I GUESS NOT!

BLONDIE By Chic Young

DADDY, WILL YOU GIVE ME CHANGE FOR A QUARTER?
SURE
OKAY, NOW WHERE'S MY QUARTER?
I CAN'T GIVE IT BACK, DADDY— I NEED THIS MONEY
BUT YOU ASKED ME FOR CHANGE FOR A QUARTER
OH, DEAR, NOW YOU HAVE ME ALL CONFUSED
DAGWOOD—ARE YOU TRYING TO BEAT YOUR POOR LITTLE DAUGHTER OUT OF A QUARTER?

DICK TRACY By Chester Gould



ANYTHING NEW, SAM?
NOT A THING! THE LAST WAITER'S GONE HOME.
TRACY, IS THERE ANY OTHER ENTRANCE TO YONSON'S, BESIDES THE TWO FRONT DOORS AND THE REAR?
NOT THAT I KNOW OF, SAM. IT'S A CORNER BUILDING, BUT IT HAS NO SIDE DOOR.
CRUNCH

RIP KIRBY By Alex Raymond

FORTUNATELY, IT'S A VERY LARGE ROSE AND A VERY SMALL COFFEE STAIN. THE SHIP'S CLEANING SHOP WILL TAKE CARE OF IT.
OH, BUT I SHOULDN'T HAVE WORN THE DRESS AT ALL! IT'S MY OWN FAULT!
LATER, IN HER STATEROOM:
WHAT'LL I DO? I DON'T DARE SEND IT TO THE CLEANERS. WAIT... I'VE GOT AN IDEA!
OH THIS ROSE ON ONE OF MY OWN DRESSES IS ALMOST EXACTLY LIKE IT. MAYBE I CAN SWITCH THEM...

ARCHIE By Montana

NOW FOR OUR STUDENT RESEARCH PERIOD! YOU MAY CONDUCT ANY EXPERIMENT YOU WISH!
ARCHIE?
I'VE ALWAYS HEARD OF THIS EXPERIMENT BUT NEVER SAW IT DONE! I'M CURIOUS ABOUT THE RESULTS!
FINE, FINE! PROCEED!
FIRST, WE TURN ON AN ELECTRIC FAN....

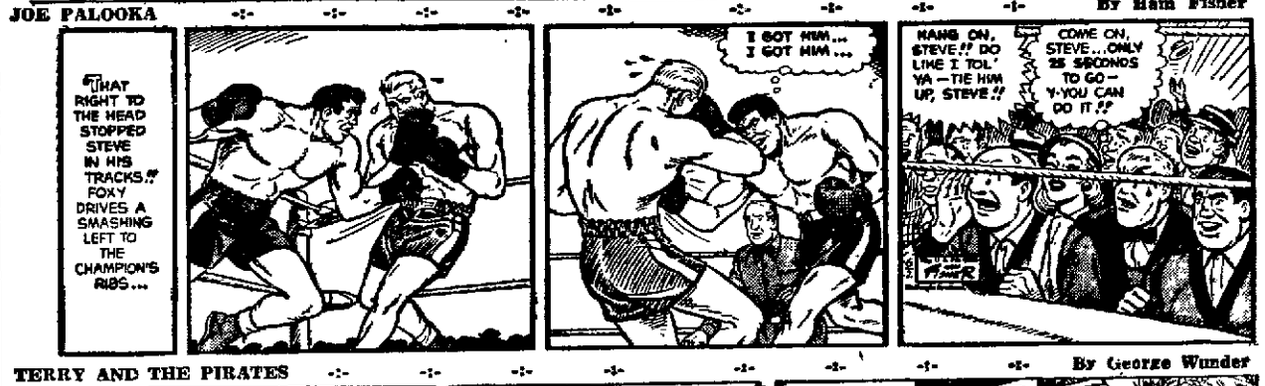
GASOLINE ALLEY By Frank King

Officer, this man is Smith, the guy who gave me a phony check for the rent!
His name isn't Smith. It's Chigger!
He grew a beard-
And gypped us out of $1500 with a fake option.
It's a lie!
Goodby, everybody! The car is worth more than the mink stole!
YIELD RIGHT-OF-WAY

JOE PALOOKA By Ham Fisher



THAT RIGHT TO THE HEAD STOPPED STEVE IN HIS TRACKS.!! FOXY DRIVES A SMASHING LEFT TO THE CHAMPION'S RIBS...
I GOT HIM... I GOT HIM...
HANG ON, STEVE!! DO LIKE I TOL' YA — TIE HIM UP, STEVE!!
COME ON, STEVE... ONLY 25 SECONDS TO GO — Y-YOU CAN DO IT!!

TERRY AND THE PIRATES By George Wunder

YOU'RE WRONG, TATTOO! MY LIKING YOU WAS NOT A PRETENSE TO HELP ME GET INFORMATION ABOUT YOUR FATHER.
AND I SUPPOSE IT WOULDN'T HAVE MADE YOUR JOB SIMPLER IF I'D PUT MY GIRLISH HEAD ON YOUR MANLY CHEST AND CONFESSED FATHER'S FUNNY FORMULA?
THE FOOL! THE UTTER FOOL!

ANNIE ROONEY By Darrell McClure

NOW, LOOK HERE, BOOMER, I DIDN'T COME ON THIS TRIP FOR A PLEASURE CRUISE! — I WANT YOU TO GET IN CONTACT WITH THE PLANE THAT'S GOING TO FLY ME TO SOUTH AMERICA!-I WANT-- EASY DOES IT, MARK!
YOU MAY HAVE BEEN A BIG SHOT ASHORE, BUT OUT HERE I GIVE THE ORDERS. YOU'RE JUST A LANDLUBBER PASSENGER AN' DON'T KNOW HOW THINGS WORK AT SEA.. NOW TAKE THE WEIGHT OFF YOUR FEET AND SIT DOWN!
GEE, ZERO - CAPTAIN BOOMER AN' MR. MARK ARE ARGUIN' AGAIN. THAT SCARES ME, 'CAUSE IT MAKES 'EM BOTH ACT MEAN!
